TO THE HONORABLE STUART M. BERNSTEIN
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Irving H. Picard, Esq. (the “Trustee”), as Trustee for the substantively consolidated liquidation proceeding of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”), under the Securities Investor Protection Act (“SIPA”),¹ 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa et seq., and the estate of Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff,” and together with BLMIS, each a “Debtor” and collectively, the “Debtors”), respectfully submits his Sixteenth Interim Report (this “Report”) pursuant to SIPA § 78fff-1(c) and this Court’s Order on Application for an Entry of an Order Approving Form and Manner of Publication and Mailing of Notices, Specifying Procedures For Filing, Determination, and Adjudication of Claims; and Providing Other Relief entered on December 23, 2008 (the “Claims Procedures Order”) (ECF No. 12).² Pursuant to the Claims Procedures Order, the Trustee shall file additional interim reports every six (6) months. This Report covers the period between April 1, 2016 and September 30, 2016 (the “Report Period”).

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. The Trustee has worked relentlessly for nearly eight years to recover customer property and distribute it to BLMIS customers. Through pre-litigation and other settlements, the Trustee has successfully recovered or reached agreements to recover, more than $11.2 billion through the Report Period—more than 63% of the currently estimated principal lost in the Ponzi scheme by those who filed claims—for the benefit of all BLMIS customers with allowed claims.³

2. On June 15, 2016, this Court entered an Order Approving the Trustee’s Seventh Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Seventh Interim Distribution to Customers, in which the Trustee allocated approximately $271.333 million⁴ to the Customer Fund. On June 30, 2016, the Trustee distributed approximately $190.247 million on allowed claims relating to 972 accounts, or 1.305% of each customer’s allowed claim, unless the claim was fully satisfied. When combined with the approximately $685.279 million First Interim Distribution, the $4.978 billion Second Interim Distribution, the $696.277 million Third Interim Distribution, the $468.223 million Fourth Interim Distribution, the $403.409 million Fifth Interim Distribution, the $1.209 billion Sixth Interim Distribution, and $836.633 million in advances paid or committed to be paid by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”),⁵ the Trustee has distributed approximately $9.467 billion to BLMIS customers, with 1,297 BLMIS accounts fully satisfied. The 1,297 fully satisfied accounts represent over 57% of accounts with allowed claims, demonstrating that the Trustee has made significant progress in returning customer property to BLMIS customers. See discussion infra in Section VIII.

3. The Trustee and his counsel (including, but not limited to, Baker & Hostetler LLP (“B&H”), Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx”), and various special counsel retained by the Trustee (“Special Counsel”) (collectively, “Counsel”), continued to litigate hundreds of individual cases before this Court, the United States District Court for the ⁴ The total amount allocated in the Seventh Allocation and Seventh Interim Distribution Motion was $247,012,857.10, which represented all recoveries subsequent to the Sixth Interim Distribution and through May 20, 2016. Between the filing of that motion and the Seventh Interim Distribution date, an additional $24,320,579.12 was recovered and included in the numerator.

⁵ SIPC has advanced over $834.4 million to date to the Trustee to pay allowed claims. The difference between the amount committed to pay by SIPC and the amount actually advanced to customers depends on whether the Trustee has received an executed assignment and release from the customer. Thus, the amount of SIPC advances requested by the Trustee and paid for allowed customer claims is less than the amount of SIPC advances committed by the Trustee.

Southern District of New York (the “District Court”), the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit (the “Second Circuit”), the Supreme Court, and dozens of international courts.

4. This Report is meant to provide an overview of the efforts of the Trustee and his team of professionals in unwinding the largest Ponzi scheme in history. Billions of dollars and thousands of people and entities located across the world were involved in this fraud. The Trustee continues to work diligently to coordinate the administration, investigation, and litigation to maximize efficiencies and reduce costs.

5. All Interim Reports, along with a complete docket and substantial information about this liquidation proceeding, are located on the Trustee’s website, www.madofftrustee.com (the “Trustee Website”).

II. BACKGROUND

6. The Trustee’s prior interim reports, each of which is fully incorporated herein,⁶ have detailed the circumstances surrounding the filing of this case and the events that have taken place during prior phases of this proceeding.

III. FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ESTATE

7. No administration costs, including the compensation of the Trustee and his counsel, are being paid out of recoveries obtained by the Trustee for the benefit of BLMIS customers. Rather, the fees and expenses of the Trustee, his counsel and consultants, and administrative costs incurred by the Trustee are paid from administrative advances from SIPC. These costs are chargeable to the general estate and have no impact on recoveries that the Trustee has obtained or will obtain. Thus, recoveries from litigation, settlements, and other means will be available in their entirety for the satisfaction of customer claims.

⁶ Prior reports cover the periods from December 11, 2008 to June 30, 2009 (the “First Interim Report”) (ECF No. 314); July 1, 2009 to October 31, 2009 (the “Second Interim Report”) (ECF No. 1011); November 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010 (the “Amended Third Interim Report”) (ECF No. 2207); April 1, 2010 to September 30, 2010 (the “Fourth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 3038); October 1, 2010 to March 31, 2011 (the “Fifth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 4072); April 1, 2011 to September 30, 2011 (the “Sixth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 4529); October 1, 2011 to March 31, 2012 (the “Seventh Interim Report”) (ECF No. 4793); April 1, 2012 to September 30, 2012 (the “Eighth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 5066); October 1, 2012 to March 31, 2013 (the “Ninth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 5351); April 1, 2013 to September 30, 2013 (the “Tenth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 5554); October 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014 (the “Eleventh Interim Report”) (ECF No. 6466); April 1, 2014 to September 30, 2014 (the “Twelfth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 8276); October 1, 2014 through March 31, 2015 (the “Thirteenth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 9895); April 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015 (the “Fourteenth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 11912) and October 1, 2015 through March 31, 2016 (the “Fifteenth Interim Report”) (ECF No. 13184).

8. A summary of the financial condition of the estate as of September 30, 2016 is provided in Exhibit A attached hereto.

9. This summary reflects cash of $24,641,794.38, short term investments, money market deposit accounts, certificates of deposit and other minor investments of $364,543,038 and short-term United States Treasuries in the amount of $2,007,971,594. See Exhibit A, page 3, note (3) and page 5, notes (4) and (5).

10. As detailed in Exhibit A, as of September 30, 2016, the Trustee requested and SIPC has advanced $2,224,345,203.02, of which $834,417,302.24 was used to pay allowed customer claims up to the maximum SIPA statutory limit of $500,000 per account,⁷ and $1,389,927,900.78 was used for administrative expenses. See Exhibit A, page 1.

IV. ADMINISTRATION OF THE ESTATE

A. Marshaling And Liquidating The Estate Assets

11. The Trustee and his Counsel have worked diligently to investigate, examine, and evaluate the Debtor's activities, assets, rights, liabilities, customers, and other creditors. Thus far, the Trustee has been successful in recovering or entering into agreements to recover a significant amount of assets for the benefit of customers, totaling over $11.2 billion through September 30, 2016. For a more detailed discussion of prior recoveries, see Section V.B. of the

First Interim Report; Section IV of the Second, Amended Third, and Fourth Interim Reports; Section VII of the Fifth Interim Report; Section IV of the Sixth Interim Report; and Section VII of the Seventh through Fifteenth Interim Reports.

12. The Trustee has identified claims in at least eight shareholder class action suits that BLMIS filed before the Trustee's appointment arising out of its proprietary and market making desk's ownership of securities. As of the Sixteenth Interim Report, the Trustee had received distributions from seven of these class action settlements totaling over $91,000. The Trustee has not and will not receive any distributions from the eighth class action settlement. In addition, the Trustee has identified claims that BLMIS may have in 190 other class action suits also arising out of its proprietary and market making activities. The Trustee has filed proofs of claim in 124 of these cases and, based on a review of relevant records, has declined to pursue claims in 56 additional cases. Subject to the completion of a review of relevant records, the Trustee intends to file claims in the remaining 10 cases. As of September 30, 2016, the Trustee has recovered $1,727,390.42 from settlements relating to 59 of the 124 claims filed directly by the Trustee, of which $72.38 was recovered during the Report Period.

V. CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION

A. Claims Processing

i. Customer Claims

13. During the Report Period, the Trustee allowed $110,847.65 in customer claims. This brings the total amount of allowed claims as of September 30, 2016 to $15,080,002,679.40. The Trustee has paid or committed to pay $836,633,073.63 in cash advances from SIPC. This is the largest commitment of SIPC funds of any SIPA liquidation proceeding and greatly exceeds the total aggregate payments made in all SIPA liquidations to date.

14. As of September 30, 2016, there were 71 claims relating to 48 accounts that were “deemed determined,” meaning the Trustee has instituted litigation against those accountholders and related parties. The complaints filed by the Trustee in those litigations set forth the express grounds for disallowance of customer claims under § 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such claims will not be allowed until the avoidance actions are resolved by settlement or otherwise and the judgments rendered against the claimants in the avoidance actions are satisfied.

ii. General Creditor Claims

15. As of September 30, 2016, the Trustee had received 427 timely and 22 untimely filed secured and unsecured priority and non-priority general creditor claims totaling approximately $1.7 billion. The claimants include vendors, taxing authorities, employees, and customers filing claims on non-customer proof of claim forms. Of these 427 claims and $1.7 billion, the Trustee has received 94 general creditor claims and 49 broker-dealer claims totaling approximately $264.9 million. At this time, the BLMIS estate has no funds from which to make distributions to priority/non-priority general creditors and/or broker dealers.

iii. The Trustee Has Kept Customers Informed Of The Status Of The Claims Process

16. Throughout the liquidation proceeding, the Trustee has kept customers, interested parties, and the public informed of his efforts by maintaining the Trustee Website, a toll-free customer hotline, conducting a Bankruptcy Code § 341(a) meeting of creditors on February 20, 2009, and responding to the multitude of phone calls, e-mails, and letters received on a daily basis, from both claimants and their representatives.

17. The Trustee Website allows the Trustee to share information with claimants, their representatives, and the general public regarding the ongoing recovery efforts and the overall liquidation. In addition to court filings, media statements, and weekly information on claims determinations, the Trustee Website includes up-to-date information on the status of Customer Fund recoveries, an “Ask the Trustee” page where questions of interest are answered and updated, a letter from the Trustee’s Chief Counsel on litigation matters, a detailed distribution page, an FAQs page, and a timeline of important events. The Trustee Website is monitored and updated on a daily basis.

18. In addition, the Trustee Website allows claimants to e-mail their questions directly to the Trustee’s professionals, who follow up with a return e-mail or telephone call to the claimants. As of September 30, 2016, the Trustee and his professionals had received and responded to more than 7,100 e-mails via the Trustee Website from BLMIS customers and their representatives.

19. The toll-free customer hotline provides status updates on claims and responses to claimants’ questions and concerns. As of September 30, 2016, the Trustee, B&H, and the Trustee’s professionals had fielded more than 8,200 calls from claimants and their representatives.

20. In sum, the Trustee and his team have endeavored to respond in a timely manner to every customer inquiry and ensure that customers are as informed as possible about various aspects of the BLMIS proceeding.

iv. The Hardship Program

21. At the commencement of claims administration, the Trustee established the Hardship Program to accelerate the determination of claims and the receipt of SIPC protection up to $500,000 for individual account holders who were dealing with hardship. An individual could qualify for the Hardship Program if he or she filed a claim and was unable to pay for necessary living or medical expenses, over 65 years old and forced to reenter the work force after retirement, declaring personal bankruptcy, unable to pay for the care of dependents, or suffering from extreme financial hardship beyond the identified circumstances.

22. As of December 11, 2010, the Trustee had received 394 Hardship Program applications. The Trustee obtained advances from SIPC and issued 122 checks to hardship applicants with allowed claims. The Trustee also worked in good faith with approved applicants to reconcile any disputed portions of their claims. Of the 394 Hardship Program applications received prior to December 11, 2010, the Trustee assessed the information provided and, in the exercise of his discretion, decided not to commence avoidance actions against 249 hardship applicants.

23. The Trustee expanded the Hardship Program into a second phase as he instituted avoidance actions. While the law requires the Trustee to pursue avoidance actions to recover customer property, the Trustee has stated that he will not pursue avoidance actions against BLMIS accountholders suffering proven hardship. In order to forego an avoidance action, the Trustee needed financial information about the accountholder. Thus, the Trustee announced in November 2010 that the Hardship Program would focus on avoidance action defendants and requested that accountholders come forward to share information regarding their hardships. Through this program, the Trustee has worked with a substantial number of hardship applicants who were subject to avoidance actions to confirm their hardship status and forego the pursuit of an avoidance action.

24. As of September 30, 2016, the Trustee had received 444 applications from avoidance action defendants relating to 291 adversary proceedings. After reviewing the facts and circumstances presented in each application and, in many cases, requesting additional verifying information, the Trustee dismissed 259 Hardship Program applicants-defendants from avoidance actions. As of September 30, 2016, there were 41 applications still under review and 403 that were resolved because they were either withdrawn by the applicant, deemed withdrawn for failure of the applicant to pursue the application, denied for lack of hardship or referred for consideration of settlement.⁸ The Trustee has also extended the time for applicants to answer or otherwise respond to avoidance action complaints while their Hardship Program applications are pending.

25. The Trustee established a Hardship Program Hotline with a telephone number and electronic mail address. A large number of potential applicants have been assisted by the Trustee through the use of the Hotline, and the Trustee urges customers to continue using this resource and the Hardship Program if they believe they qualify. Further information and applications are available on the Trustee Website.

B. Objections To Claims Determinations

26. As required by the Claims Procedures Order and described in each determination letter sent by the Trustee (“Determination Letter”), BLMIS claimants have thirty days from the date of a Determination Letter to object to the Trustee’s determination of their claim. Claimants who disagree with the Trustee’s determination of their claim must file with the Court a written opposition setting forth the grounds of disagreement and provide the Trustee with the same. A hearing date will be obtained by the Trustee, and claimants will be notified of that date. As of September 30, 2016, 2,051 objections (which exclude withdrawn objections and include duplicates, amendments, and supplements) have been filed with the Court. These objections relate to 3,633 unique claims and 977 accounts. 877 objections remained as of September 30, 2016.

27. The following objections, among others, have been asserted: Congress intended a broad interpretation of the term “customer” and the statute does not limit the definition to those who had a direct account with BLMIS, the Trustee should determine claims based upon the BLMIS November 30, 2008 statement as opposed to the court-approved cash in-cash out or “Net Investment Method,” claimants should receive interest on deposited amounts, the Trustee must commence an adversary proceeding against each claimant in order to avoid paying gains on claimants’ investments, claimants paid income taxes on distributions and their claims should be adjusted by adding all amounts they paid as income taxes on fictitious profits, each person with an interest in an account should be entitled to the SIPC advance despite sharing a single BLMIS account, and there is no legal basis for requiring the execution of a Assignment and Release prior to prompt payment of a SIPC advance.

28. The Trustee has departed from past practice in SIPA proceedings and paid or committed to pay the undisputed portion of any disputed claim in order to expedite payment of SIPC protection to customers, while preserving their right to dispute the total amount of their claim.

C. Settlements Of Customer Claims Disputes

29. As of September 30, 2016, the Trustee had reached agreements relating to 885 accounts and with the IRS (which did not have a BLMIS account). These litigation, pre-litigation, and avoidance action settlements allowed the Trustee to avoid the litigation costs that would have been necessary to obtain and collect judgments from these customers.

VI. PROCEEDINGS RELATED TO THE INTERPRETATION OF SIPA

A. Net Equity Dispute

30. For purposes of determining each customer’s Net Equity, as that term is defined under SIPA, the Trustee credited the amount of cash deposited by the customer into his BLMIS account, less any amounts already withdrawn from that BLMIS customer account, also known as the Net Investment Method. Some claimants argued that the Trustee was required to allow customer claims in the amounts shown on the November 30, 2008 customer statements (the “Net Equity Dispute”).

31. This Court issued a decision on March 1, 2010 upholding the Trustee’s Net Investment Method as the only interpretation consistent with the plain meaning and legislative history of the statute, controlling Second Circuit precedent, and considerations of equity and practicality. (ECF No. 2020); Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 424 B.R. 122 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010). This Court certified an immediate appeal to the Second Circuit (ECF No. 2467), which heard oral argument on March 3, 2011.

32. On August 16, 2011, the Second Circuit affirmed this Court’s decision and the Trustee’s Net Investment Method, holding that it would have been “legal error” for the Trustee to discharge claims for securities under SIPA “upon the false premise that customers’ securities positions are what the account statements purport them to be.” Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 654 F.3d 229, 241 (2d Cir. 2011). Any calculation other than the Net Investment Method would “aggravate the injuries caused by Madoff’s fraud.” Id. at 235. Instead, the Net Investment Method prevents the “whim of the defrauder” from controlling the process of unwinding the fraud. Id.

33. Under the Second Circuit’s decision, the relative position of each BLMIS customer account must be calculated based on “unmanipulated withdrawals and deposits” from its opening date through December 2008. Id. at 238. If an account has a positive cash balance, that accountholder is owed money from the estate. As a corollary, if an account has a negative cash balance, the accountholder owes money to the estate. Both the recovery and distribution of customer property in this case are centered on the principle that the Trustee cannot credit “impossible transactions.” Id. at 241. If he did, then “those who had already withdrawn cash deriving from imaginary profits in excess of their initial investment would derive additional benefit at the expense of those customers who had not withdrawn funds before the fraud was exposed.” Id. at 238.

34. First, the Second Circuit found, “in the context of this Ponzi scheme—the Net Investment Method is . . . more harmonious with provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that allow a trustee to avoid transfers made with the intent to defraud . . . and ‘avoid[s] placing some claims unfairly ahead of others.’” Id. at 242 n.10 (quoting Jackson v. Mishkin (In re Adler, Coleman Clearing Corp.), 263 B.R. 406, 463 (S.D.N.Y. 2001)). Thus, the Trustee is obligated to use the avoidance powers granted by SIPA and the Bankruptcy Code to prevent one class of customers—the “net winners” or those with avoidance liability—from having the benefit of Madoff’s fictitious trades at the expense of the other class of customers—the “net losers,” or those who have yet to recover their initial investment.

35. Next, the Second Circuit explained that “notwithstanding the BLMIS customer statements, there were no securities purchased and there were no proceeds from the money entrusted to Madoff for the purpose of making investments.” Id. at 240. Therefore any “[c]alculations based on made-up values of fictional securities would be ‘unworkable’ and would create ‘potential absurdities.’” Id. at 241 (quoting In re New Times Sec. Serv., Inc., 371 F.3d 68, 88 (2d Cir. 2004)). Thus, the Second Circuit rejected reliance upon the BLMIS account statements, finding that, to do otherwise, “would have the absurd effect of treating fictitious and arbitrarily assigned paper profits as real and would give legal effect to Madoff’s machinations.” Id. at 235.

36. On September 6, 2011, certain claimants filed a petition for panel rehearing, or, in the alternative, for rehearing en banc. Sterling Equities Assoc. v. Picard, Adv. No. 10-2378 (2d Cir.) (ECF Nos. 505, 537). The panel that determined the appeal considered the request for panel rehearing, the active members of the Court considered the request for rehearing en banc, and on November 8, 2011, both denied the petition. (ECF No. 551).

37. Three petitions for certiorari were filed with the Supreme Court. On June 25, 2012, the Supreme Court denied certiorari in two of the petitions. Ryan v. Picard, 133 S. Ct. 24 (2012); Velvel v. Picard, 133 S. Ct. 25 (2012). Certiorari was also dismissed with respect to one appeal. Sterling Equities Assoc. v. Picard, 132 S. Ct. 2712 (2012).

B. Time-Based Damages

38. Following the Supreme Court decision denying certiorari regarding the Net Investment Method, the Trustee filed a motion seeking the affirmance of his calculations of net equity, and denying certain claimants' request for "time-based damages." (ECF Nos. 5038, 5039). The Trustee took the position that customers were not entitled to an inflation-based adjustment to their allowed customer claims.

39. Over the objections of hundreds of parties, the Court granted the Trustee's motion, finding that claimants were not entitled to time-based damages as part of their net equity claims against the fund of customer property (the "Time-Based Damages Decision"). (ECF No. 5463).

40. Thereafter, the parties submitted a letter requesting that the Court certify a direct appeal of the Time-Based Damages Decision to the Second Circuit under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2). (ECF No. 5488). On September 24, 2013, the Court certified the Time-Based Damages Decision for a direct appeal to the Second Circuit, (ECF No. 5514), which was accepted on January 22, 2014. In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, No. 14-97(L) (2d Cir. Jan. 22, 2014). Oral argument took place on October 14, 2014.

41. On February 20, 2015, the Second Circuit affirmed the Bankruptcy Court's decision, holding that "SIPA's scheme disallows an inflation adjustment as a matter of law" and that the SEC was not owed Skidmore or Chevron deference. See In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 779 F.3d 74, 80, 82 (2d Cir. 2015) ("Net Equity Decision"). The Court also held that "an interest adjustment to customer net equity claims is impermissible under SIPA's scheme." Id. at 83.

42. Under the Second Circuit's decision, a customer's net equity claim, calculated in accordance with the Net Equity Decision, will not be adjusted for inflation or interest. The Second Circuit explained that "an inflation adjustment goes beyond the scope of SIPA's intended protections and is inconsistent with SIPA's statutory framework." Id. at 79. Nor does SIPA provide for compensation related to any opportunity cost of the use of such money during the pendency of the liquidation proceedings. Id. at 80. While SIPA operates to "facilitate the proportional distribution of customer property actually held by the broker," Id. at 81, "the Act . . . restores investors to what their position would have been in the absence of liquidation." Id. at 79. For similar reasons, the Second Circuit rejected the request of one claimant who sought an adjustment for interest, in addition to inflation. Id. at 83.

43. Certain claimants urged the Court to apply deference to the SEC's view, which supported their position that customer claims were deserving of an inflation-based adjustment. While the SEC clarified that it did not seek deference at all, but if it were, it would have been Skidmore, a more fluid level of deference than the kind sought by the claimants. Nevertheless, the Second Circuit held that no deference was owed to the SEC's views in this case. Id. at 82.

44. The claimants did not file a petition for rehearing in the Second Circuit. A petition for a writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court was filed on July 20, 2015. On July 23, 2015 and July 24, 2015, the Trustee and SIPC waived their rights to respond to the petition. On August 21, 2015, a brief was filed in support of the petition by other BLMIS customers. On September 9, 2015, the petition was distributed to the Justices for a conference on September 28, 2015. On October 5, 2015, the Supreme Court declined to review the petition.

C. “Customer” Definition

45. The Trustee’s position consistently has been that only those claimants who maintained an account at BLMIS constitute “customers” of BLMIS, as defined in § 78lll(2) of SIPA. Where it appeared that claimants did not have an account in their names at BLMIS (“Claimants Without An Account”), the Trustee denied their claims for securities and/or a credit balance on the ground that they were not customers of BLMIS under SIPA.

46. On June 11, 2010, the Trustee filed a Motion For An Order To Affirm Trustee’s Determinations Denying Claims of Claimants Without BLMIS Accounts in Their Names, Namely, Investors in Feeder Funds. (ECF Nos. 2410–2413, 2416). The motion addressed only those claimants whose claims emanated from their direct or indirect investments in sixteen so-called feeder funds that, in turn, had accounts with and invested directly with BLMIS.

47. This Court held a hearing on October 19, 2010. On June 28, 2011, this Court issued a Memorandum Decision and Order affirming the Trustee’s denial of these claims. (ECF Nos. 3018, 4193, 4209); Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 454 B.R. 285 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011).

48. This Court found that, in light of the plain language of SIPA and relevant case law, the investor-claimants did not qualify as “customers” under SIPA. This Court found that the objecting claimants invested in, not through, the feeder funds, and had no individual accounts at BLMIS. It was the feeder funds who entrusted their monies with BLMIS for the purpose of trading or investing in securities—the touchstone of “customer” status—whereas the objecting claimants purchased ownership interests in the feeder funds. This Court held that, absent a direct broker-dealer relationship with BLMIS, the objecting claimants sought a definition of “customer” that stretched the term beyond its limits.

49. Judge Lifland put it succinctly: the objecting-claimants who invested in sixteen feeder funds did not qualify as “customers” because they “had no securities accounts at BLMIS, were not known to BLMIS, lacked privity and any financial relationship with BLMIS, lacked property interests in any Feeder Fund account assets at BLMIS, entrusted no cash or securities to BLMIS, had no investment discretion over Feeder Fund assets invested with BLMIS, received no account statements or other communications from BLMIS and had no transactions reflected on the books and records of BLMIS” Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 454 B.R. at 290.

50. Twenty-seven notices of appeal were filed and assigned to United States District Judge Denise L. Cote. See Aozora Bank Ltd. v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., No. 11-cv-05683 (DLC) (S.D.N.Y.). On January 4, 2012, Judge Cote affirmed the June 28, 2011 order of this Court. See Aozora Bank Ltd. v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., 480 B.R. 117 (S.D.N.Y. 2012). In that decision, Judge Cote determined in light of SIPA, the “most natural reading of the ‘customer’ definition excludes persons like the appellants who invest in separate third-party corporate entities like their feeder funds that in turn invest their assets with the debtor.” Id. at 123. Thus, the District Court held that the feeder funds were the BLMIS customers and the appellants were precluded from seeking separate recoveries as additional SIPA claimants. Id. at 129–30.

51. On January 6, 2012, four appeals were taken from Judge Cote's order to the Second Circuit. See Bricklayers and Allied Craftsman Local 2 Annuity Fund v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., Irving H. Picard, No. 12-410 (2d Cir. Jan. 31, 2012); Rosamilia v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., Irving H. Picard, No. 12-437 (2d Cir. Feb. 2, 2012); Kruse v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., Irving H. Picard, No. 12-483 (2d Cir. Feb. 6, 2012); Upstate N.Y. Bakery Drivers and Indus. Pension Fund v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., Irving H. Picard, No. 12-529 (2d Cir. Feb. 3, 2012). On February 22, 2013, the Second Circuit affirmed the decisions of the District Court and the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"). See Kruse v. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp., Irving H. Picard, 708 F.3d 422 (2d Cir. 2013).

52. On another matter involving the interpretation of the "customer" definition, on October 5, 2011, the Trustee moved before this Court for an order establishing a briefing schedule and hearing to affirm his determination that ERISA did not alter his denial of "customer" status to certain claimants. (ECF No. 4432). This Court entered a scheduling order on November 8, 2011. (ECF No. 4507).

53. On November 14, 2011, the Trustee filed his Motion For An Order Affirming Trustee's Determinations Denying Claims Over ERISA-Related Objections. (ECF No. 4521) (the "ERISA Motion"). On or around January 17, 2012, approximately eighteen opposition briefs to the ERISA Motion were filed on behalf of various ERISA claimants. (ECF Nos. 4625–4628, 4631–4633, 4635, 4637–4643, 4652–4654). On March 2, 2012, the Trustee filed his Memorandum in Support of the Trustee's Motion For An Order Affirming Trustee's Determinations Denying Claims Over ERISA-Related Objections. (ECF No. 4703). On April 2, 2012, five replies to the ERISA Motion were filed on behalf of various ERISA claimants. (ECF Nos. 4746, 4748, 4750, 4755, 4756). The Trustee's sur-reply was filed on April 20, 2012. (ECF No. 4781).

54. During the pendency of the above briefing, certain ERISA claimants also filed motions to withdraw the reference on the ERISA Motion from this Court to the District Court. See Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Jacqueline Green Rollover Account, No. 12-cv-01039-DLC (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 6, 2012) (filed on behalf of J. X. Reynolds & Co. Deferred Profit Sharing Plan, Jacqueline Green Rollover Account and Wayne D. Green Rollover Account); Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. I.B.E.W. Local 241 Pension Fund, No. 12-cv-01139-DLC (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 6, 2012) (filed on behalf of thirty-seven ERISA plan claimants). On February 28, 2012 and March 1, 2012, these motions were accepted as related to the appeals decided by Judge Cote in Aozora Bank, 480 B.R. 117 (S.D.N.Y. 2012), discussed above, and were re-assigned to Her Honor. Judge Cote withdrew the reference on April 20, 2012. Jacqueline Green Rollover Account, No. 12-cv-01039-DLC (S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 7.

55. On July 25, 2012, the District Court granted the Trustee's ERISA Motion. See Id. (ECF No. 29). The District Court found that the ERISA claimants were not "customers" under SIPA because they did not deposit money with BLMIS for the purchase of securities and did not own the assets of the ERISA plans that were deposited with BLMIS. Id. No appeal was taken from this opinion and order.

56. On June 27, 2013, the Trustee filed the Trustee's Second Motion to Affirm Trustee's Determinations Denying Claims of Claimants Who Invested in Certain Feeder Funds and Did Not Have BLMIS Accounts in Their Names. (ECF Nos. 5396, 5397, 5398, 5399, 5438, 5439, collectively, the "Second Feeder Fund Motion"). On August 21, 2013, the Court issued the Second Feeder Fund Decision. (ECF No. 5450). That decision reaffirmed that "the burden is on the claimant to establish he is a ‘customer’ entitled to SIPA protection, and such a showing is not easily met.” Id. at 4 (quoting 454 BR at 294). Also, the Court determined that the claimants “failed to [meet their burden] because they lack any indicia of a ‘customer’ relationship with BLMIS.” In particular, “they had no securities accounts at BLMIS, were not known to BLMIS, lacked privity and any financial relationship with BLMIS, lacked property interest in any feeder fund account assets at BLMIS, entrusted no cash or securities to BLMIS, had no investment discretion over feeder fund assets invested with BLMIS, received no account statements or other communications from BLMIS and had no transactions reflected on the books and records at BLMIS.” Id. at p. 4. The Second Feeder Fund Decision was not appealed.

57. On April 30, 2014, the Trustee filed a motion to affirm his determinations denying claims of claimants who invested in certain ERISA plans. (ECF Nos. 6489, 6491, 6492). In an opinion rendered on August 22, 2014, the Court determined that the claimants were not “customers” of BLMIS within the meaning of SIPA. (ECF No. 7761).

58. On December 12, 2014, the Trustee filed his Motion and Memorandum To Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims of Claimants Holding Interests in S&P or P&S Associates, General Partnerships (the “S&P Motion”). (ECF No. 8734). The S&P Motion was filed to resolve objections to the Trustee’s denial of 158 claims that were filed by parties who were either partners in, or investors in those partners in, P&S or S&P Associates.⁹ The Trustee allowed the claims of S&P and P&S to the extent of their respective net equity, because each held a BLMIS account in its name. S&P and P&S have been receiving interim distributions on their claims.

59. The P&S/S&P Claimants objected to the Trustee’s S&P Motion on January 26, 2015 (ECF No. 9185). They argued that SIPA should be construed broadly to include the S&P and P&S partners/investors. Id. at 3-4. The Claimants also argued that under Florida partnership law, “a partner is an owner of the partnership. . . . [and] a partner owns a specific interest in all partnership assets.” Id. at 6.

60. On February 25, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court issued an oral ruling granting the Trustee’s S&P Motion. See Hr’g Tr. 27:19 – 35:25 (ECF No. 9506). The Court explained that “the objecting partners have failed to sustain their burden of proof” because “[t]hey did not entrust any cash or securities with BLMIS.” Rather, “[t]hey invested with partnerships who, in turn, invested with BLMIS.” As a result, “even if BLMIS knew or surmised that the partnerships’ BLMIS accounts were funded with partners’ contributions, there is no evidence that BLMIS maintained records identifying the partners or even knew who they were, and the fact remains that the partners did not entrust anything to BLMIS” Id. at 30:16-31:6. On March 10, 2015 the Bankruptcy Court entered an Order approving the Trustee’s Motion to Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims of Claimants Holding Interests in S & P or P & S Associates, General Partnerships. (ECF No. 9450). No appeal was taken from the order.

61. Since the S&P Decision, the Trustee has filed twelve similar motions to affirm his customer claim determinations with respect to indirect investors, eleven of which have been granted by this Court.¹⁰ No timely objections were received.

¹⁰See Order Approving Trustee’s Motion To Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims of Claimants Holding Interests In Peerstate Equity Fund, L.P. (ECF No. 9883) (Apr. 27, 2015); Order Approving Trustee’s Motion And To Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims Of Claimants Holding Interests In The Lazarus-Schy Family Partnership, The Schy Family Partnership, Or The Lazarus Investment Group, (ECF No. 10010) (May 18, 2015); Order Approving Trustee’s Motion To Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims Of Claimants Holding Interests In Epic Ventures, LLC (ECF No. 10267) (June 25, 2015); Order Approving Trustee’s Motion To Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims Of Claimants Holding Interests in Partners Investment Co., Northeast Investment Club, And Martin R. 62. Only two claimants since the P&S/S&P Claimants have objected to the Trustee's motion to affirm his treatment of their claim. On September 29, 2015, George G. and Linda G. Pallis filed a timely objection to the Trustee's Motion to Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims Of Claimants Holding Interests In 1973 Masters Vacation Fund, Bull Market Fund, And Strattham Partners. (ECF No. 11920).

63. The Pallises relied upon three checks made payable to Bernard L. Madoff for investment in the 1973 Masters Vacation Fund BLMIS account as evidence of their customer status. This Court found that despite the existence of those checks, the Pallises were situated no differently than any of the other indirect claimants because despite being made payable to Madoff, they were sent to the "agent of the fund" and were ultimately credited to the fund's BLMIS account. See Transcript of Hearing regarding Trustee's Motion and Memorandum to Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims of Claimants' Holding Interests in 1973 Masters Vacation Fund, Bull Market Fund, and Strattham Partners, 12:18-25 (Oct. 28, 2015). This Court overruled the Pallises' objection and granted the Trustee's Motion because the evidence showed that the Pallises "didn't have an account with . . . BLMIS, had no connection, received no correspondence or direct communications" from BLMIS and thus "fail[ed] to demonstrate that they were customers" of BLMIS. Id. at 13:1-8.

The twelfth motion for an Order Approving Trustee's Motion to Affirm His Determinations Denying Claims Of Claimants Holding Interests In AHT Partners, Pergament Equities, LLC, SMT Investors LLC, Greene/Lederman, L.L.C., And Turbo Investors, LLC was filed on September 15, 2016 with a hearing date of October 26, 2016. (ECF No. 14065).

D. Fact-Based Objections

64. As part of his ongoing efforts to resolve pending objections, counsel for the Trustee has continued investigating and analyzing objections of claimants to the Trustee's determination of their claims. During this extensive review of the facts unique to each claimant, the Trustee has identified circumstances that require resolution by the Bankruptcy Court. As such, during the period covered by the Trustee's Sixteenth Interim Report, counsel for the Trustee and counsel for claimant Brian Ross entered into a stipulation setting dates for the litigation of Mr. Ross's claim (ECF No. 13048) (April 6, 2016). This Court approved and entered the Stipulated Scheduling Order on May 4, 2016 (ECF No. 13215).

65. Since that time, the Trustee and counsel for Mr. Ross have exchanged discovery related to his claim and objection, asserting that he is entitled to customer status based on his deposits into a BLMIS account held in the name of his father, Allen Ross. On August 24, 2016, this Court entered a Stipulation and Order Modifying the Scheduling Order Concerning the Determination of the Brian Ross Claim (ECF No. 13921) to extend fact discovery in order to allow the parties sufficient time to identify possible witnesses.

E. Inter-Account Transfers

66. The Trustee has maintained, and the Second Circuit affirmed, that the "cash-in, cash-out" methodology is appropriate for calculating a customer's net equity in this case. The Net Equity Decision, however, did not expressly address the treatment of transfers between BLMIS accounts, which the Trustee refers to as "Inter-Account Transfers." Many customers maintained more than one BLMIS account, and transferred funds between such accounts. Other customers transferred funds to the accounts of other BLMIS customers.

67. On March 27, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order setting a schedule to file briefs and argue the merits of the Trustee's Motion For An Order To Affirm the Trustee's Determination of Customer Claims Regarding Transfers between BLMIS Accounts (the “IAT Motion”). See ECF No. 6049. On March 31, 2014, the Trustee filed the IAT Motion, which explained that, for Inter-Account Transfers, in which no new funds entered BLMIS, the Trustee reduced the balance of the transferor account to the extent actual principal was available, and then credited the transferee account in the corresponding amount of actual principal transferred. (ECF No. 6084). If the transferor account did not have any principal available at the time of the transfer, then $0 was credited to the transferee account. Id. at 3. SIPC filed a brief in support of the Trustee’s motion on March 31, 2014. (ECF No. 6079).

68. Fifteen objections were filed in response to the IAT Motion. These objecting parties argued that the inter-account method violates the statute of limitations for pursuing fraudulent transfers under section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; generates arbitrary results; improperly combines accounts and violates federal securities laws; violates public policy; and violates ERISA. They also argued that the Bankruptcy Court lacks constitutional authority to render final judgments and that a transferee’s net equity claim should not be affected by withdrawals made by other beneficiaries in a shared account.

69. On December 8, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court entered its Memorandum Decision Affirming Application of the Trustee’s Inter-Account Method to the Determination of Transfers Between BLMIS Accounts. ECF No. 8680; see Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC (In re Bernard L. Madoff), 522 B.R. 41 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014). The Bankruptcy Court affirmed the Trustee’s method for calculating a customer’s net equity when inter-account transfers were made to or from that account. Judge Bernstein explained that if he adopted the objecting parties’ arguments, “computing the balance in the transferor’s account bloated by fictitious profits increases the transferee’s claim to the customer property pool allocable to all Madoff victims by artificially increasing the transferee's net equity. This result aggravates the injury to those net losers who did not receive transfers of fictitious profits by diminishing the amount available for distribution from the limited pool of customer property." Id. at 53. The order memorializing Judge Bernstein's written decision was entered on December 22, 2014. (ECF No. 8857).

70. Five notices of appeal were filed by: (i) Diana Melton Trust, Dated 12/05/05 (ECF No. 8843); (ii) Edward Zraick Jr., Nancy Zraick, Patricia DeLuca and Karen M. Rich (ECF No. 8911); (iii) Michael Most (ECF No. 8913); (iv) claimants represented by Becker & Poliakoff (ECF No. 8916); and (v) Elliot G. Sagor (ECF No. 8917). (Case Nos. 15-cv-1151; 15-cv-1195; 15-cv-1223; 15-cv-1236; 15-cv-1263). The appellants filed three briefs on April 27, 2015 (ECF No. 12 (Case No. 15-cv-1151); ECF No. 12 (Case No. 15-cv-1223) and ECF No. 13 (Case No. 15-cv-1263), respectively). The Trustee's opposition was filed on May 27, 2015. (ECF No. 21). SIPC filed its opposition brief on May 27, 2015 (ECF No. 20). An amicus brief was filed on May 4, 2015 (ECF No. 13), and replies were filed on June 25, 2015 (ECF No. 24). On September 17, 2015, oral argument was held before Judge Engelmayer.

71. On January 14, 2016, Judge Engelmayer issued his opinion and order affirming this Court's Order approving the use of the Inter-Account Transfer Method. Judge Engelmayer held that the Inter-Account Transfer Method "properly applies the Second Circuit's Net Equity Decision and is not otherwise prohibited by law;" in fact, he found that "the method is superior as a matter of law, and not 'clearly inferior,'" to the alternatives proposed by the appellants. In re BLMIS, 15 Civ. 1151(PAE), 2016 WL 183492 *1, at *26 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 14, 2016) (citing Sec. Inv'r Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 654 F.3d at 238 n.7).

72. On February 11 and 12, 2016, three appeals were taken from Judge Engelmayer's order to the Second Circuit by (i) Elliot G. Sagor (Docket 16-413, ECF No. 1); (ii) Edward A. Zraick, Jr., Nancy Zraick, Patricia DeLuca, and Karen M. Rich (Docket 16-420, ECF No. 1); and (iii) claimants represented by Chaitman LLP (Docket 16-423, ECF No. 1). The Trustee subsequently moved to consolidate the three appeals and set a common briefing schedule on March 18, 2016; that motion was granted on March 23, 2016. See Sagor v. Picard, 16-413, ECF No. 34; Zraick et al. v. Picard, 16-420, ECF No. 34; Blecker et al. v. Picard, 16-423, ECF No. 39.

73. The appellants filed three opening briefs on May 23, 2016. (ECF Nos. 134, 140 and 141). The Trustee's opposition was filed on August 22, 2016 (ECF No. 166). SIPC's opposition brief was filed on August 23, 2016 (ECF No. 170). An amicus brief was filed on May 31, 2016 (ECF No. 155), and replies were filed on September 29 and 30, 2016 (ECF Nos. 184, 186 and 187). Oral argument before the Second Circuit is currently scheduled for the week of January 9, 2017.

F. Profit-Withdrawal Issue

74. In a declaration related to the Inter-Account Transfer matter, one customer raised an issue with respect to certain withdrawals that were reflected on his BLMIS customer account statements. See Declaration of Aaron Blecker, In Opposition to the Trustee's Motion to Affirm The Application of The Net Investment Method to the Determination of Customer Transfers Between BLMIS Accounts (ECF No. 6761). Several other customers objected to the Trustee's denial of their net equity claims for similar reasons. These customers dispute whether they actually received funds that appear to be identified on BLMIS customer account statements as "PW", or "Profit Withdrawals."

75. Upon further review and analysis, the Trustee discovered that several hundred accounts contained “PW” Transactions. In light of the number of potentially impacted accounts, the Trustee sought to institute an omnibus proceeding to resolve the question of whether the Trustee’s treatment of “PW” transactions as cash withdrawals for the purposes of a customer’s net equity calculation is proper. See Motion for Order Establishing Schedule For Limited Discovery & Briefing On Profit Withdrawal Issue (ECF No. 9357). Following discussions with various counsel, the Trustee withdrew his Motion and filed an Amended Motion for Order Establishing Schedule for Limited Discovery and Briefing on Profit Withdrawal Issue (ECF No. 10017) (“Profit Withdrawal Scheduling Order”). The Court granted the Amended Motion on June 25, 2015 (ECF No. 10266).

76. On July 14, 2015, the Trustee filed his motion and memorandum of law on the Profit Withdrawal Issue, along with the supporting declarations. (ECF Nos. 10660-10664). SIPC filed its supporting memorandum on July 14, 2015 (ECF No. 10650). The Trustee and Participating Claimants exchanged written discovery in accordance with the Profit Withdrawal Scheduling Order, including service of supplemental expert reports.

77. On December 28, 2015, counsel for Aaron Blecker filed a Motion for an Order Compelling the Trustee to Allow Aaron Blecker’s SIPC Claim (“Motion to Compel”) despite his involvement in the Profit Withdrawal litigation. (ECF No. 12319). The Trustee opposed the Motion to Compel on the grounds that Mr. Blecker’s claims were at the center of both the Profit Withdrawal litigation and the Inter-Account Transfer appeal before the District Court. (ECF No. 12432, Jan. 13, 2016). SIPC filed its memorandum in support of the Trustee’s opposition on January 14, 2016 (ECF No. 12438). Mr. Blecker filed his reply on February 10, 2016, ECF No. 12628, and a hearing was held before this Court on February 24, 2016 at which time Mr.

Blecker's Motion to Compel was denied. This Court denied the motion because (1) Mr. Blecker agreed to participate in the omnibus Profit Withdrawal Litigation proceedings and he could not now litigate around those procedures; (2) any decision on the issues raised in his Motion to Compel would impact the omnibus profit withdrawal litigation; and (3) issues of facts remain that would only be resolved through an evidentiary hearing. See Hearing Transcript Regarding Motion to Allow Customer Claim of Aaron Blecker, 28:22 -30:4 (Feb. 24, 2016).

78. During the February 24, 2016 hearing, this Court also granted counsel for Mr. Blecker leave to file a Motion for an Order Authorizing the Deposition of Bernard L. Madoff ("Motion to Depose Madoff") and raised the possibility that the Trustee may also want to depose former BLMIS employees with knowledge of the Profit Withdrawal Transactions. As a result, on March 9, 2016, counsel for Mr. Blecker filed the Motion to Depose Madoff. (ECF Nos. 12799, 12800). The Trustee opposed the Motion to Depose Madoff on the grounds that his testimony would be unreliable and that counsel for the customers was likely to use the deposition as an opportunity to seek information related to other pending litigation. The Trustee requested that the motion be denied or in the alternative, that all questions be limited to the Profit Withdrawal Issue.¹¹ (ECF No. 12892). A hearing was held on the Motion to Depose Madoff on March 23, 2016, and this Court granted the Motion to Depose Madoff with the requested limitations including that the deposition transcript remain sealed pending review by all interested parties and redaction if necessary. Madoff on the grounds that Ms. Chaitman planned to use the deposition to question Mr. Madoff on information related to the late Jeffry Picower. See ECF No. 12893.

79. To allow time for the depositions of Mr. Madoff and former BLMIS employees before the end of discovery, the Trustee filed a Motion for an Order Amending Schedule of Litigation of Profit Withdrawal Issue on March 14, 2016. Through that motion, the Trustee requested a 90-day extension of all remaining deadlines, including the close of discovery. (ECF No. 12865). Arguments were heard by this Court on April 5, 2016, at which time the Motion to Amend the Scheduling Order was approved. See Hearing Transcript Regarding Trustee's Motion to Extend Discovery Deadline in Profit Withdrawal Proceeding, 14:25-15:1 (Apr. 5, 2016).

80. During the period covered by the Trustee's Sixteenth Interim Report, and prior to close of fact discovery, counsel for the Trustee deposed several former BLMIS employees regarding their work with profit withdrawal transactions at BLMIS. These former employees provided testimony as to their knowledge of the treatment and management of Profit Withdrawal Transactions at BLMIS. On May 11 and 13, 2016, counsel for the Trustee also deposed Participating Claimants Drs. Norman and Joel Blum, respectively. Counsel for Participating Claimant Aaron Blecker deposed Mr. Madoff on June 15, 2016, and counsel for the Trustee attended for purposes of cross-examination.

81. On July 12, 2016, this Court entered the Stipulation And Order On Schedule For Litigation Of And Evidentiary Hearing On Profit Withdrawal Issue (ECF No. 13619), as agreed to by the parties, and modifying the April 5, 2016 amended scheduling order. The July 12, 2016 order set forth deadlines for supplemental briefing, exchanged proposed trial exhibits, and motions in limine. Pursuant to the updated scheduling order, the Trustee filed his Supplemental Memorandum Of Law In Support Of Trustee's Motion Affirming Treatment of Profit Withdrawal Transactions (ECF No. 13876) and SIPC filed its Supplemental Memorandum In Support Of the Trustee's Motion (ECF No. 13872) on August 12, 2016. Participating Claimants subsequently filed two opposition briefs on September 23, 2016 (ECF Nos. 14161 and 14168).

82. On September 30, 2016, the Trustee and Participating Claimants exchanged proposed trial exhibits, designated deposition testimony, and disclosed draft witness lists.

VII. RECOVERIES AND CONTINGENCIES

A. Recoveries Accomplished During Prior Report Periods

83. In the Sixth through Fifteenth Interim Reports, the Trustee reviewed the significant settlements entered into during those periods and prior report periods. Prior to this Report Period, the Trustee had recovered or reached agreements to recover approximately $11.1 billion for the benefit of BLMIS customers. See Trustee's Sixth Interim Report ¶¶ 52–63 (ECF No. 4529); Trustee's Seventh Interim Report ¶¶ 56–62 (ECF No. 4793); Trustee's Eighth Interim Report ¶¶ 57–61 (ECF No. 5066); Trustee's Ninth Interim Report ¶¶ 59 – 61 (ECF No. 5351); Trustee's Tenth Interim Report ¶¶ 61-62 (ECF No. 5554); Trustee's Eleventh Interim Report ¶¶ 61-62 (ECF No. 6466); Trustee's Twelfth Interim Report ¶¶ 63-64 (ECF No. 8276); Trustee's Thirteenth Interim Report ¶¶ 72-76 (ECF No. 9895); Trustee's Fourteenth Interim Report ¶¶ 73-76 (ECF No. 11912); and Trustee's Fifteenth Interim Report ¶¶ 79-80 (ECF No. 13184).

B. Recoveries Accomplished During This Report Period

84. During the Report Period, the Trustee settled 53 cases. Additionally, the Trustee received settlement recoveries of $95,136,266.69, bringing the amount the Trustee has successfully recovered to over $11.2 billion.

85. On September 28, 2016, this Court approved a settlement between the Trustee and Annette and Rudy Bongiorno. Picard v. Annette Bongiorno, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 10-04215.

(ECF No. 46). Under the settlement, the defendants will pay approximately $3,931,878 to the Trustee.

C. Earlier Settlements

86. In the Twelfth Interim Report, the Trustee reported on the Fairfield, JPMorgan Chase and Tremont settlements. See Trustee's Twelfth Interim Report ¶¶ 173-182, 202-214, 311-319 (ECF No. 8276). In the Thirteenth Interim Report, the Trustee reported on the Blumenfeld, Herald Fund, Senator Fund and Herald (Lux) SICAV settlements. See Trustee's Thirteenth Interim Report ¶¶ 73-76 (ECF No. 9895). In the Fourteenth Interim Report, the Trustee reported on the Gabriel Capital, Plaza Investments and Defender settlements. See Trustee's Fourteenth Interim Report ¶¶ 74-76 (ECF No. 11912). In the Fifteenth Interim Report, the Trustee reported on the Vizcaya Partners settlement. ¶¶ 264-72 (ECF No. 13184).

87. Through the end of the Report Period, the Trustee recovered $536,092,384.27 as a result of other settlements that were made pursuant to agreements subject to the Net Equity Dispute.

VIII. THE TRUSTEE'S ALLOCATION OF FUNDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO CUSTOMERS

A. The Customer Fund

88. In order to protect customers of an insolvent broker-dealer such as BLMIS, Congress established a statutory framework pursuant to which customers of a debtor in a SIPA liquidation are entitled to preferential treatment in the distribution of assets from the debtor's estate. The mechanism by which customers receive preferred treatment is through the creation of a Customer Fund, as defined in SIPA § 78lll(4), which is distinct from a debtor's general estate. Customers holding allowable claims are entitled to share in the Customer Fund based on each customer's net equity as of the filing date, to the exclusion of general creditors. SIPA § 78fff-2(c).

89. In order to make interim distributions from the Customer Fund, the Trustee must determine or be able to sufficiently estimate: (a) the total value of customer property available for distribution (including reserves for disputed recoveries), and (b) the total net equity of all allowed claims (including reserves for disputed claims). Each element of the equation—the customer property numerator and the net equity claims denominator—is inherently complex in a liquidation of this magnitude.

90. There are many unresolved issues in this liquidation proceeding that require the maintenance of substantial reserves. Nonetheless, the liquidation proceeding progressed to a stage at which it was possible for the Trustee, on an interim basis, to determine: (a) the allocation of property to the Customer Fund, or the "numerator" (taking reserves into account), (b) the amount of allowable net equity claims, or the "denominator" (also taking reserves into account), and (c) the calculation of each customer's minimum ratable share of the Customer Fund.

B. The Trustee's Initial Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the First Interim Distribution to Customers

91. On May 4, 2011, the Trustee moved for an initial allocation and pro rata interim distribution of the Customer Fund to customers whose claims had not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the "First Allocation" and "First Interim Distribution"). (ECF No. 4048). This motion was unopposed, and the Court entered the Order Approving the Trustee's Initial Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing An Interim Distribution to Customers on July 12, 2011. (ECF No. 4217).

92. On October 5, 2011, the Trustee distributed $311.854 million, or 4.602% of each BLMIS customer's allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Subsequent to October 5, 2011, an additional $373.426 million was distributed as catch-up payments, bringing the total First Interim Distribution amount to $685.279 million through the end of the Report Period. The First Interim Distribution was made to 1,352 BLMIS accounts, of which 39 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee's Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

93. The First Allocation and First Interim Distribution were initial and interim in nature because the Trustee anticipated recovering additional assets through litigation and settlements, and resolving the issues on appeal that require reserves.

C. The Trustee's Second Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the Second Interim Distribution to Customers

94. During the year after the Trustee made the First Interim Distribution, the Trustee recovered significant additional assets through litigation and settlements, as well as the resolution of issues on appeal that required reserves.

95. In particular, the Supreme Court resolved the Net Equity Dispute on June 25, 2012, and the Trustee received the Picower settlement funds after the final order of forfeiture became final and non-appealable on July 16, 2012.

96. Thus, the Trustee was prepared to make a second significant distribution to BLMIS customers in an amount as great as $3.019 billion, or 41.826% of each customer's allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. However, in order to maintain adequate reserves for the Time-Based Damages Issue, the Trustee was unable to distribute the entire $3.019 billion.

97. On July 26, 2012, the Trustee filed a motion seeking entry of an order approving the second allocation of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing the second interim distribution to customers whose claims have not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the “Second Allocation” and “Second Interim Distribution”). (ECF No. 4930).

98. In connection with the Second Interim Distribution, the Trustee proposed holding in reserve an amount sufficient for the Trustee to pay Time-Based Damages assuming an interest rate of three percent (the “3% Reserve”) or, in the alternative, nine percent (the “9% Reserve”). Four objections were made to the Trustee’s motion, seeking the imposition of the 9% Reserve. (ECF Nos. 4965, 4966, 4971, 4976).

99. On August 22, 2012, this Court held a hearing and entered an Order Approving the Trustee’s Second Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Second Interim Distribution to Customers, with a 3% Reserve. (ECF No. 4997).

100. Thus, on September 19, 2012, the Trustee distributed $2.479 billion, or 33.556% of each BLMIS customer’s allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Subsequent to September 19, 2012, an additional $2.499 billion was distributed as catch-up payments, bringing the total Second Interim Distribution amount to $4.978 billion through the end of the Report Period. The Second Interim Distribution was made to 1,338 BLMIS accounts, of which 39 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee’s Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

D. The Trustee's Third Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the Third Interim Distribution to Customers

101. During the months after the Second Interim Distribution, the Trustee recovered significant additional assets thorough litigation and settlements, particularly the Tremont settlement. See discussion infra Section IX(B)(ii)(j).

102. On February 13, 2013, the Trustee filed a motion seeking entry of an order approving the third allocation of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing the third interim distribution to customers whose claims have not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the “Third Allocation” and “Third Interim Distribution”). (ECF No. 5230).

103. In connection with the Third Interim Distribution, the Trustee proposed holding reserves in connection with the Levy settlement appeal, the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) settlement and net loser accounts currently in litigation. Id.

104. On March 13, 2013, this Court held a hearing and entered an Order Approving the Trustee’s Third Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Third Interim Distribution to Customers. (ECF No. 5271).

105. Thus, on March 29, 2013, the Trustee distributed $506.227 million, or 4.721% of each BLMIS customer’s allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Subsequent to March 29, 2013, an additional $190.05 million was distributed as catch-up payments, bringing the total Third Interim Distribution amount to $696.277 million through the end of the Report Period. The Third Interim Distribution was made to 1,149 BLMIS accounts, of which 26 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee’s Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

E. The Trustee's Fourth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the Fourth Interim Distribution to Customers

106. During the year after the Trustee made the Third Interim Distribution, the Trustee recovered significant additional assets through litigation and settlements, particularly the JPMorgan settlement.

107. On March 25, 2014, the Trustee filed a motion seeking entry of an order approving the fourth allocation of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing the fourth interim distribution to customers whose claims have not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the “Fourth Allocation” and “Fourth Interim Distribution”). (ECF No. 6024).

108. In connection with the Fourth Interim Distribution, the Trustee proposed holding reserves in connection with non-preference related settlement payments for accounts with net equity clauses, as well as certain other settlements. Id.

109. On April 18, 2014, this Court entered an Order Approving the Trustee’s Fourth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Fourth Interim Distribution to Customers. (ECF No. 6340).

110. Thus, on May 5, 2014, the Trustee distributed $351.632 million, or 3.180% of each BLMIS customer’s allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Subsequent to May 5, 2014, an additional $116.591 million was distributed as catch-up payments, bringing the total Fourth Interim Distribution amount to $468.223 million through the end of the Report Period. The Fourth Interim Distribution was made to 1,117 BLMIS accounts, of which 25 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee’s Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

F. The Trustee's Fifth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the Fifth Interim Distribution to Customers

111. During the months after the Trustee made the Fourth Interim Distribution, the Trustee recovered significant additional assets through litigation and settlements, particularly with the Blumenfeld defendants (Picard v. Edward Blumenfeld, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 10-04730 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (SMB) (ECF No. 45)), Herald Fund SPC and Primeo Fund (Picard v. HSBC Bank PLC, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 09-01364 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (SMB) (ECF No. 349)), and Senator Fund SPC (Picard v. HSBC Bank PLC, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 09-01364 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (SMB) (ECF No. 350)).

112. On December 22, 2014, the Trustee filed a motion seeking entry of an order approving the fifth allocation of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing the fifth interim distribution to customers whose claims have not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the “Fifth Allocation” and “Fifth Interim Distribution”). (ECF No. 8860).

113. In connection with the Fifth Interim Distribution, the Trustee proposed holding reserves in connection with non-preference related settlement payments for accounts with net equity clauses, as well as certain other settlements. Id.

114. On January 15, 2015, this Court entered an Order Approving the Trustee’s Fifth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Fifth Interim Distribution to Customers. (ECF No. 9014).

115. On February 6, 2015, the Trustee distributed $355.761 million, or 2.743% of each BLMIS customer’s allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Upon completion of the Fifth Interim Distribution, approximately 52% of the allowed customer claims were satisfied. Subsequent to February 6, 2015, an additional $47.647 million was distributed as catch-up payments, bringing the total Fifth Interim Distribution amount to $403.409 million through the end of the Report Period. The Fifth Interim Distribution was made to 1,096 BLMIS accounts, of which 23 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee's Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

G. The Trustee's Sixth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the Sixth Interim Distribution to Customers

116. In its order approving the Second Allocation Motion (ECF No. 4997), the Court required the Trustee to maintain the 3% Reserve for the Time-Based Damages Dispute. Under the terms of Judge Lifland's order requiring the 3% Reserve, the Trustee set a Time-Based Damages reserve and allocated such reserve to the Customer Fund as part of the total amount allocated to the Customer Fund in the Second through Fifth Allocations and Interim Distributions.

117. On April 15, 2015, the Trustee filed a motion seeking entry of an order approving the sixth allocation of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing the sixth interim distribution to customers whose claims have not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the "Sixth Allocation" and "Sixth Interim Distribution"). (ECF No. 9807). In the Sixth Allocation and Sixth Interim Distribution Motion, the Trustee sought approval to release the bulk of the Time-Based Damages reserve and distribute such funds under the terms set forth therein. These funds became available for distribution following the decision of the Second Circuit on the "time-based damages" issue. In Re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 779 F.3d 74 (2d Cir. Feb. 20, 2015) (the "Time-Based Damages Decision").

118. The Trustee could not distribute these funds until the time limit to file a petition for certiorari with the Supreme Court expired with no petition being filed or a final, non-appealable order was entered on the Time-Based Damages Decision.

119. At the time the Trustee filed the Sixth Allocation Motion, no petitions for certiorari had been filed on the Time-Based Damages Decision. The time period to file a petition for certiorari was due to expire on May 21, 2015. The hearing date on the Sixth Allocation Motion was set for May 29, 2015, which would permit the hearing to go forward if no petitions for certiorari were filed by that date. The Trustee indicated in the Sixth Allocation Motion that the hearing may not be able to go forward if a petition for certiorari was filed.

120. A group of claimants represented by Helen Davis Chaitman, Esq. moved for an extension of time within which to file a petition for certiorari with the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court granted that request on April 28, 2015, extending the time to file a petition for certiorari to July 20, 2015. Marsha Peshkin v. Irving H. Picard, Trustee for the Liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC, No. 14A1099 (2015).

121. Following the extension of time to file the petition for a writ of certiorari, the Trustee filed a notice of adjournment of the hearing on the Sixth Allocation Motion, adjourning the hearing from May 28, 2015 to July 29, 2015. The purpose of the adjournment was to allow the extended time period within which to file a petition for certiorari to expire. If no petition was filed, the Trustee would seek the Court's approval to allocate and distribute funds from the fund of customer property, as outlined in the Trustee's Sixth Allocation Motion.

122. On July 20, 2015, the group of claimants represented by Helen Davis Chaitman filed a petition for a writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court. Accordingly, the hearing on the Trustee's Sixth Allocation Motion was adjourned sine die, pending the determination of the petition for a writ of certiorari by the Supreme Court.

123. On October 5, 2015, the Supreme Court denied the petition for certiorari, paving the way for the Trustee to request authorization from the Court to make a sixth distribution to customers of more than $1.18 billion—up to 8.186% of each customer's allowed claim amount. On October 20, 2015, the Trustee filed a Notice of Hearing and Supplemental Filing in Further Support of the Trustee's Motion for an Order Approving Sixth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing Sixth Interim Distribution to Customers (ECF No. 11834) and an Affidavit of Vineet Sehgal in support. (ECF No. 11835). On November 18, 2015, this Court entered an Order Approving the Trustee's Sixth Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Sixth Interim Distribution to Customers. (ECF No. 12066).

124. On December 4, 2015, the Trustee distributed $1.193 billion, or 8.262% of each BLMIS customer's allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Upon completion of the Sixth Interim Distribution, approximately 56% of the allowed customer claims were satisfied. Subsequent to December 4, 2015, an additional $15.447 million was distributed as catch-up payments, bringing the total Sixth Interim Distribution amount to $1.209 billion through the end of the Report Period. The Sixth Interim Distribution was made to 1,075 BLMIS accounts, of which 20 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee's Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

H. The Trustee's Seventh Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing the Seventh Interim Distribution to Customers

125. During the months after the Trustee made the Sixth Interim Distribution, the Trustee recovered significant additional assets through litigation and settlements, particularly with the Thybo defendants (Picard v. Thybo Asset Mgmt. Ltd., Adv. No. 09-01365 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 10, 2011) (ECF No. 96) and Vizcaya Partners Limited, Bank J. Safra Sarasin (Gibraltar) Ltd., Bank J. Safra (Gibraltar) Ltd., Asphalia Fund, Ltd., Zeus Partners Limited, Banque J. Safra Sarasin (Suisse) SA, Banque Jacob Safra (Suisse) SA, and Pictet et Cie (Picard v. Vizcaya Partners Limited, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 09-01154 (ECF No. 129); Picard v. Banque J. Safra (Suisse) SA, Adv. Pro. No. 11-01725 (ECF No. 73); Picard v. Pictet et Cie, Adv. Pro. No. 11-01724 (ECF No. 90)).

126. On May 26, 2016, the Trustee filed a motion seeking entry of an order approving the seventh allocation of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing the seventh interim distribution to customers whose claims have not been fully satisfied because their net equity claims as of the Filing Date exceeded the statutory SIPA protection limit of $500,000 (respectively, the “Seventh Allocation” and “Seventh Interim Distribution”). (ECF No. 13405).

127. In connection with the Seventh Interim Distribution, the Trustee proposed holding reserves in connection with non-preference related settlement payments for accounts with net equity clauses, as well as certain other settlements. Id.

128. On June 15, 2016, this Court entered an Order Approving the Trustee’s Seventh Allocation of Property to the Fund of Customer Property and Authorizing a Seventh Interim Distribution to Customers. (ECF No. 13512).

129. Thus, on June 30, 2016, the Trustee distributed $190.247 million, or 1.305% of each BLMIS customer’s allowed claim, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. Upon completion of the Seventh Interim Distribution, over 57% of the allowed customer claims were satisfied. The Seventh Interim Distribution was made to 972 BLMIS accounts, of which 15 payments went to claimants who qualified for hardship status under the Trustee's Hardship Program whose claims had not been fully satisfied previously.

I. The General Estate

130. If the Trustee is able to fully satisfy the net equity claims of the BLMIS customers, any funds remaining will be allocated to the general estate and distributed in the order of priority established in Bankruptcy Code § 726 and SIPA § 78fff(e).

131. All BLMIS customers who filed claims—whether their net equity customer claims were allowed or denied—are deemed to be general creditors of the BLMIS estate. The Trustee is working diligently on behalf of all creditors and will seek to satisfy all creditor claims.

IX. LITIGATION

132. Other major developments have occurred during the Report Period in the Trustee's avoidance actions and bank/feeder fund litigations. This Report does not discuss each of them in detail but instead summarizes those matters with the most activity during the Report Period.

A. The District Court—Motions to Withdraw the Reference, Motions to Dismiss and Related Appeals

133. Upon the motions of hundreds of defendants, the District Court withdrew the reference in numerous cases and heard numerous motions to dismiss. A total of 485 motions to withdraw and 424 joinders were filed, altogether implicating a total of 807 adversary proceedings. The District Court returned all proceedings to the Bankruptcy Court.

i. Proceedings Relating to Motions to Withdraw

(a) The Administrative Order

134. On March 5, 2012, this Court entered the Administrative Order which stated: “[i]n the interest of administrative efficiency, this Court has been informed by Judge Rakoff, and hereby notifies all parties to the Adversary Proceedings, that the District Court will automatically regard untimely any motion to withdraw . . . if such motion is not filed on or before April 2, 2012.” Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, Adv. No. 08-01789 (ECF No. 4707).

135. On July 10, 2014, the District Court issued an order directing counsel to parties with individual issues not addressed by the Court's decisions in the consolidated withdrawals to inform the Court by letter by July 18, 2014. See In re Madoff Sec., No. 12 MC 00115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. July 10, 2014), ECF No. 552. The District Court received several such letters and addressed the issues they raised in separate orders. On August 4, 2014, the District Court deemed any remaining motions to withdraw the reference to be denied, referred all the adversary proceedings to be returned to the Bankruptcy Court, and directed the closure of all civil cases seeking to withdraw the reference related to the Madoff matter. See In re Madoff Sec., No. 12 MC 00115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 4, 2014), ECF No. 557.

(b) Consolidated Briefing Orders

136. In April 2012, the District Court instituted a protocol for then-pending motions to withdraw, which consolidated briefing on common issues raised in the motions to withdraw (the “Common Briefing”). The common issues included:

- whether the Supreme Court’s decision in Stern v. Marshall (the “Stern Issue”) precluded the Bankruptcy Court from entering final judgment on the Trustee’s claims and therefore mandated withdrawal of the reference to Bankruptcy Court. 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011); see Order, Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 13, 2012), ECF No. 4;
- whether the Trustee’s claims against certain defendants should be dismissed in light of the defendants’ affirmative defense of antecedent debt (the “Antecedent Debt Issue”). See Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. May 16, 2012), ECF No. 107;
- whether standing issues (the “Standing Issue”) bar the Trustee’s common law claims against certain defendants by virtue of the doctrine of in pari delicto and/or the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998 (“SLUSA”), as well as whether the Trustee is entitled to accept assignments or assert the “insider exception” to in pari delicto. See Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. May 15, 2012), ECF No. 114;

- whether § 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code precludes the Trustee’s claims against certain defendants against whom the Trustee has alleged knew or should have known that Madoff was running a Ponzi scheme (the “Bad Faith § 546(e) Issue”). See Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. May 15, 2012), ECF No. 119;
- whether the Trustee is entitled to employ § 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code against defendants accused of receiving avoidable transfers (the “§ 502(d) Issue”). See Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. June 1, 2012), ECF No. 155;
- whether the Supreme Court’s ruling in Morrison v. National Australia Bank Ltd., as applied to SIPA or the Bankruptcy Code, bars the Trustee’s claims against certain defendants (the “Extraterritoriality Issue”). 130 S. Ct. 2869 (2010); see Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. June 6, 2012), ECF No. 167; and
- whether SIPA or the securities laws alter the standards for determining good faith under either §§ 548(c) or 550(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Good Faith Standard Issue”). See Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. June 23, 2012), ECF No. 197.

137. The Stern Issue was raised by hundreds of defendants. Judge Rakoff heard oral argument on June 18, 2012 and issued a decision on January 4, 2013 (the “Stern Opinion and Order”), ruling that the Bankruptcy Court could not issue a final decision on certain of the Trustee’s fraudulent transfer claims. Opinion and Order (ECF No. 427), 460 B.R. 46 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013). The Stern Opinion and Order indicates that the Bankruptcy Court may be able to render rulings where a defendant filed a claim. Id. at 19. In the Stern Opinion and Order, Judge Rakoff found that even in those cases where no claim was filed, the Bankruptcy Court could issue a report and recommendation, and referred the Trustee’s cases back to the Bankruptcy Court subject to the other pending rulings. Id.

138. The Antecedent Debt Issue was also raised by hundreds of defendants, who filed their motion on June 25, 2012. (ECF No. 196). Oral argument was held by Judge Rakoff on August 25, 2012. Judge Rakoff issued a decision on October 15, 2013 (the “Antecedent Debt Opinion and Order”), ruling that the Trustee’s avoidance claims against certain defendants should not be dismissed and stating that “[the] pre-reach-back-period inter-account transfers of amounts exceeding principal in the account of the sender continue to be fictitious profits, not principal, in the account of the recipient, and therefore do not constitute antecedent debt for the recipient of the funds.” Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, No. 12 MC 115 (JSR), 2013 WL 5651285, at *11 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 15, 2013).

139. The Standing Issue was raised by various defendants, who filed two sets of moving papers on August 3, 2012. (ECF Nos. 269, 270, 271). Judge Rakoff heard oral argument on October 15, 2012 and issued a decision on December 5, 2013 (the “Standing Opinion and Order”), finding that the Trustee “has standing to bring claims on behalf of Madoff Securities’ customers to the extent, but only to the extent, that the customers validly assigned their claims to the Trustee. However, the Court also finds that the Trustee’s pursuit of these assigned claims, to the extent that he brings the claims of more than fifty assignors, constitutes a covered class action for purposes of SLUSA.” Opinion and Order (ECF No. 509), 987 F. Supp.2d 309 (S.D.N.Y. 2013).

140. The Bad Faith § 546(e) Issue was raised by various defendants, who filed two sets of moving papers on July 27, 2012. (ECF Nos. 259–261). Judge Rakoff heard oral argument on November 26, 2012 and issued a “bottom line” ruling on February 12, 2013, indicating that under certain circumstances, the Trustee’s complaints should not be dismissed at the pleading stage solely on the basis of defendants’ invocation of § 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. (ECF No. 439). On April 15, 2013, Judge Rakoff issued a decision (the “Bad Faith § 546(e) Opinion and Order”), setting forth the basis for his ruling, and indicated that the Trustee’s claims are not precluded under § 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in cases where the Trustee “sufficiently alleges that the transferee from whom [the Trustee] seeks to recover a fraudulent transfer knew of [BLMIS's] fraud, that transferee cannot claim the protection of Section 546(e)'s safe harbor." Opinion and Order (ECF No. 460), 491 B.R. 27 (S.D.N.Y. 2013).

141. Various defendants raised the § 502(d) Issue and joined in moving papers filed on July 13, 2012. (ECF Nos. 231–33). Judge Rakoff heard oral argument on October 9, 2012 and issued a "bottom line" ruling on February 12, 2013, indicating that the Trustee may invoke section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. (ECF No. 439). Judge Rakoff issued a decision on June 30, 2014 (the "§ 502(d) Opinion and Order"), explaining the reasons for that decision and directing further proceedings related thereto to be returned to the Bankruptcy Court. Opinion and Order (ECF No. 549), 513 B.R. 437 (S.D.N.Y. 2014).

142. The Extraterritoriality Issue was joined by various defendants, who filed moving papers on July 3, 2012. (ECF Nos. 234-36). Judge Rakoff held oral argument on September 21, 2012. On July 6, 2014, Judge Rakoff issued a decision (the "Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order") indicating that certain of the Trustee's claims were barred under Morrison, and stated that "section 550(a) does not apply extraterritorially to allow for the recovery of subsequent transfers received abroad by a foreign transferee from a foreign transferor," and directing further proceedings related thereto to be returned to the Bankruptcy Court. Opinion and Order (ECF No. 551), 513 B.R. 222 (S.D.N.Y. 2014).

143. The Good Faith Standard Issue was raised by various defendants, who filed two main sets of moving papers on July 20, 2012. (ECF Nos. 242, 243). Judge Rakoff heard oral argument on October 12, 2012 and issued a decision on April 27, 2014 (the "Good Faith Standard Opinion and Order"), ruling that "in the context of this litigation and with respect to both section 548(c) and section 550(b)(1), "good faith" means that the transferee neither had actual knowledge of the Madoff Securities fraud nor willfully blinded himself to circumstances indicating a high probability of such fraud.” With respect to the issue of which party bears the burden of pleading a defendant’s good faith or lack thereof, Judge Rakoff further ruled that “a defendant may succeed on a motion to dismiss by showing that the complaint does not plausibly allege that that defendant did not act in good faith.” Opinion and Order (ECF No. 524), 516 B.R. 18 (S.D.N.Y. 2014).

144. Following the entry of the Good Faith Standard Opinion and Order and the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order, the Trustee filed an omnibus motion for expedited discovery related to the good faith issue and for leave to replead regarding the issues of good faith and extraterritoriality, which affected over 86 adversary proceedings (the “Omnibus Motion”). (ECF No. 7827). On September 17, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court held a conference to discuss further proceedings to be conducted pursuant to the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order and the Omnibus Motion. The Bankruptcy Court directed the parties to confer and devise an efficient procedure and briefing schedule. The Omnibus Motion is being held in abeyance pending the Bankruptcy Court’s resolution of issues relating to extraterritoriality.

(c) The 546(e) Appeal

145. On April 27, 2012 the District Court entered an order dismissing certain claims in 78 adversary proceedings. See Picard v. Greiff, Adv. No. 11-03775 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); Picard v. Blumenthal, Adv. No. 11-04293 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); Picard v. Goldman, Adv. No. 11-04959 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); and Picard v. Hein, Adv. No. 11-04936 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.). See Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. April 30, 2012), ECF No. 57. These claims included preferences under § 547 of the Bankruptcy Code, constructive fraudulent transfers under § 548(a)(l)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, and actual and constructive fraudulent transfers or fraudulent conveyances under provisions of the New York Debtor & Creditor Law incorporated by § 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Dismissed Claims”). The Dismissed Claims did not include those claims proceeding under § 548(a)(1)(A) and § 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

146. On April 30, 2012, the District Court entered an Opinion and Order explaining the reasons for its decision. See Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 476 B.R. 715 (S.D.N.Y. 2012). On May 15, 2012, the District Court entered a Supplemental Opinion and Order to make explicit that § 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code applies to the Trustee’s claims for avoidance and recovery of preferential transfers under § 547 of the Bankruptcy Code. See Supplemental Opinion and Order, No. 12 MC 0115 (JSR) (ECF No. 101).

147. On June 21, 2012, the Trustee and SIPC each filed notices of appeal in the Second Circuit from these orders.

148. The Second Circuit held argument on March 5, 2014. On December 8, 2014, the Second Circuit affirmed the District Court’s decision finding that section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code bars the Dismissed Claims.

149. On March 17, 2015, the Trustee and SIPC filed separate petitions for a writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court seeking to reverse the Second Circuit’s December 8, 2014 opinion.

150. On June 22, 2015, the U.S. Supreme Court denied the two petitions for certiorari filed by the Trustee and SIPC.

B. Litigation in the Bankruptcy Court and Related Appeals

(a) Resolution of Good Faith Avoidance Actions

151. At the beginning of the Report Period, there were 450 active good faith avoidance actions. 65 were closed during the Report Period, leaving a total of 385 open good faith avoidance actions by the end of the Report Period. In certain avoidance actions, the Trustee entered into several mediations and considered hardship applications and where appropriate, agreed to dismiss certain defendants from the actions. During the Report Period, two actions were dismissed pursuant to approved hardship applications and eight were dismissed due to findings of no liability. In addition, the Trustee's professionals engaged in settlement negotiations, which led to 55 cases entering into documented settlements during the Report Period.

(b) Picard v. Andrew H. Cohen, Adv. Pro. No. 10-04311

152. On October 14, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court conducted a trial on the merits of the Trustee's avoidance action in the Picard v. Andrew H. Cohen matter seeking to avoid and recover $1,143,461 in fraudulent transfers under Sections 548(a)(1)(A) and 550(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Picard v. Andrew H. Cohen, Adv. Pro. No. 10-04311 (SMB). After the close of trial, the Trustee and Mr. Cohen submitted their respective Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. (Id., ECF Nos. 71, 74, 79). Thereafter, on April 25, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court issued its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. See Post-Trial Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, Picard v. Cohen, Adv. Pro. No. 10-04311 (SMB), 2016 WL 1695296 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. April 25, 2016) (ECF No. 90). Picard v. Andrew H. Cohen, Adv. Pro. No. 10-04311 (SMB), 2016 WL 1695296 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. April 25, 2016).

153. On May 31, 2016, Mr. Cohen filed his objections under Rule 9033 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (previously defined as "Cohen Objections"), and on June 30, 2016, the Trustee filed his response to the Cohen Objections. (Id., ECF Nos. 120, 127). The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were then deemed fully submitted and transferred to District Court Judge Laura Taylor Swain for her review and determination. No decision has been issued to date.

154. Separately, on July 12, 2016, Loeb & Loeb LLP, Baker & McKenzie LLP, Milberg LLP, Dentons US LLP, and Pryor Cashman LLP (the “Intervenor-Customers”) on behalf of certain defendants in adversary proceedings, moved for leave to file an amicus curiae brief (“Amicus Brief”) (ECF Nos. 6, 10-12) in support of the Cohen Objections.

155. On July 26, 2016, the Trustee filed his opposition brief (ECF No. 14), and on August 1, 2016, the Intervenors-Customers filed their reply brief in further support of their motion for leave to file the Amicus Brief. (ECF No. 21). On October 7, 2016, Judge Swain denied the Intervenors-Customers’ motion. (ECF No. 23).

156. On October 9, 2015, the Intervenors-Customers moved to intervene in the Cohen matter, as of right or by permission, or alternatively, to participate as amicus curiae (the “Motion to Intervene”). (Adv. Pro. No. 10-04311 (SMB), ECF No. 61). On October 29, 2015, the Trustee opposed the Motion to Intervene, and on November 11, 2015, the Intervenors-Customers filed their reply brief. (Id., ECF Nos. 65, 69).

157. On April 25, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court issued a decision denying the Motion to Intervene. See Picard v. Cohen, 550 B.R. 241 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. April 25, 2016). Picard v. Andrew H. Cohen, Adv. Pro. No. 10-04311 (SMB), 2016 WL 1695296 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. April 25, 2016). Subsequently, on April 28, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered an Order Denying Motion To Intervene Or To Participate As Amicus Curiae, from which the Intervenors-Customers moved to appeal on May 9, 2016. (Id., ECF No. 63).

158. The Intervenors-Customers filed their appeal papers on July 7, 2016 (Id., No. 16 Civ. 04462 (LAP) (ECF No. 13), to which the Trustee responded on August 8, 2016 (Id. ECF No. 22), and the Intervenors-Customers filed their reply on August 22, 2016. (Id., ECF No. 23). The appeal is now fully briefed and pending before District Court Judge Loretta A. Preska.

159. In another effort to sidestep the Bankruptcy Court’s Intervention Decision, on May 9, 2016, the Intervenor-Customers filed a “Proposed Intervenors’ Objections to Proposed Ruling Denying Motion to Intervene Or Participate As Amicus Curiae” (“Objections to Proposed Ruling”) purportedly under Rule 9033(b) of the Bankruptcy Rules. (Id., ECF No. 98-99). They asserted therein that the Bankruptcy Court lacked constitutional authority to enter a final order denying the Motion to Intervene under Bankruptcy Rule 7024. (Id., ECF No. 98).

160. On May 13, 2016, the Trustee filed an application for an order to show cause and a motion to expunge the Objections to Proposed Ruling from the record, given that the Intervenor-Customers were denied intervention in the Cohen Proceeding. (Id., ECF No. 102). On May 17, 2016, the Intervenor-Customers opposed the Trustee’s motion to expunge. (ECF No. 107).

161. The Bankruptcy Court granted the Trustee’s order to show cause (ECF No. 104). In a subsequent order on May 20, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court ruled that the Intervenor-Customers’ proper path was to pursue their appeal in the District Court, and the deadline for the Trustee to respond to the Objections to the Proposed Ruling was adjourned sine die pending any further direction by the District Court, before Judge Preska. (ECF No. 110).

162. Despite the Bankruptcy Court’s rulings, counsel for Mr. Cohen and counsel for the Intervenor-Customers continued their efforts to insert the Intervenor-Customers into the Cohen matter. In connection with the District Court’s review of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in the Cohen matter, on July 12, 2016, Mr. Cohen filed a Statement of Relatedness, claiming that the District Court’s review is related to the Intervenor-Customers’ current appeal. (Case No. 16 Civ. 05513, ECF No. 5). On July 15, 2016, the Trustee filed a letter objecting to the Statement of Relatedness on the ground that the matters are not related under the Court’s Rules for the Division of Business Among District Judges. (Id., ECF No. 7).

163. On July 19, 2016, counsel for Mr. Cohen responded by filing a motion to withdraw as counsel of record (the “Withdrawal Motion”), and on the very next day, the Intervenor-Customers filed a letter stating that the Withdrawal Motion highlights that “whether or not the cases are formally designated as related matters, the disposition of the Cohen Proceeding and Intervention Appeal should be coordinated so that the Intervention Appeal is decided first.” (Id., ECF Nos. 8-9). The Trustee did not oppose the Withdrawal Motion, in part because Mr. Cohen’s counsel represented that they had performed all of the legal tasks necessary to allow the District Court to rule on the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. (Id., ECF No. 22).

(c) Extraterritoriality

164. On July 6, 2014, the District Court issued the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order. Securities Inv. Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Secs. LLC, 513 B.R. 222 (S.D.N.Y. 2014). See discussion supra Section IX(A)(i)(b).

165. On August 22, 2014, a number of subsequent transferee defendants, as well as other defendants, requested a conference with this Court to discuss procedures for motions to dismiss based on the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order. (ECF No. 7766).

166. On August 28, 2014, the Trustee filed the Omnibus Motion for Leave to Replead Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) and Court Order Authorizing Limited Discovery Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(d)(1) (the “Omnibus Motion”) (ECF No. 7826).

167. On September 17, 2014, this Court held a conference to discuss the extraterritoriality motion to dismiss procedures, which included discussions regarding the Omnibus Motion. During the conference, this Court ordered the parties to confer and submit a report or recommendation prior to the next omnibus hearing scheduled for October 22, 2014. The parties submitted an order to the Court for procedures governing defendants' motions to dismiss and the Trustee's motion for expedited discovery.

168. On November 19, 2014, this Court held a hearing regarding two objections that were filed in response to the order the parties had submitted to the Court. Following the hearing, the parties submitted a modified order, which was entered by this Court on December 18, 2014.

169. On December 10, 2014, this Court issued the Order Concerning Further Proceedings on Extraterritoriality Motion and Trustee's Omnibus Motion for Leave to Replead and for Limited Discovery (the "ET Scheduling Order").

170. On December 31, 2014, the defendants filed a supplemental memorandum of law in support of their extraterritoriality motion to dismiss (the "Consolidated Motion to Dismiss"). Beginning on June 25, 2015 through June 29, 2015, the Trustee filed his responses to the defendants' supplemental memorandum of law in support of their extraterritoriality motion to dismiss, as well as addenda in all applicable adversary proceedings.

171. On September 30, 2015, the defendants filed their supplemental reply memorandum in support of their extraterritoriality motion to dismiss and addenda in most applicable adversary actions. This Court held a hearing on the motions to dismiss based on extraterritoriality on December 16, 2015. The motion is sub judice.

172. The Omnibus Motion is currently in abeyance under the ET Scheduling Order pending this Court's ruling on the extraterritoriality issues.

173. Numerous defendants are involved in the extraterritoriality proceedings, including but not limited to defendants in the following actions: Picard v. ABN AMRO Bank N.A., Adv.

Pro. No. 10-05354 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); Picard v. ABN AMRO (Ireland) Ltd. (In re Bernard L. Madoff), Adv. Pro. No. 10-05355 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. filed Dec. 8, 2010) (SMB); Picard v. BNP Paribas Arbitrage, SNC, Adv. No. 11-02796 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011); Picard v. BNP Paribas S.A., Adv. No. 12-01576 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011); Picard v. Legacy Capital Ltd., Adv. No. 10-05286 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010); Picard v. Oreades SICAV, Adv. No. 10-05120 (SMB) (Bank. S.D.N.Y. 2010); Picard v. Equity Trading Portfolio Ltd., Adv. No. 10-04457 (SMB) (Bank. S.D.N.Y. 2010); Picard v. Citibank, Adv. No. 10-05345 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); Picard v. Fairfield Sentry Ltd. (In Liquidation), Adv. No. 09-01239 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 18, 2009); Picard v. RD Trust, Adv. No. 12-01701 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); Picard v. Barrenche Inc., Adv. No. 12-01702 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.); and Picard v. Natixis, Adv. No. 10-05353 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.).

i. Subsequent Transferee Actions

173. To date, the Trustee has brought a total of 82 adversary proceedings seeking recovery of just over $7.2 billion in subsequent transfers from 150 defendants who redeemed money from Fairfield Sentry Limited, Fairfield Sigma Limited, Fairfield Lambda Limited, Harley International (Cayman) Ltd., Kingate Global Fund Ltd., and Kingate Euro Fund Ltd. The Trustee has completed service of process in all but one adversary proceeding, for which the Trustee is currently in the process of effectuating international service of process on the remaining two defendants.

174. The subsequent transferee defendants filed motions to withdraw the reference, which were granted by Judge Rakoff and resulted in Common Briefing by the Trustee and the defendants. Among the issues affecting the subsequent transfer cases are the Extraterritoriality Issue, the Bad Faith § 546(e) Issue, the avoidance of initial transfers through the settlement with Fairfield Sentry, Greenwich Sentry, Greenwich Sentry Partners, and various Tremont funds under Bankruptcy Code § 550, application of SLUSA, and the Trustee's standing to assert claims assigned to him. The District Court issued its rulings on all of the issues affecting subsequent transferee cases and remanded the cases to this Court for further findings based on the legal standards set forth in the District Court's decisions.

175. Two subsequent transferee defendants filed motions to dismiss in the Bankruptcy Court. Briefing on one motion has not yet been completed. In the second motion, Picard v. Bureau of Labor Insurance, the defendant sought to dismiss based on the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, lack of personal jurisdiction, improper extraterritorial application of SIPA and the Bankruptcy Code, the failure to avoid the initial transfers to Fairfield Sentry through the Fairfield Sentry settlement, and the statute of limitations under Bankruptcy Code § 550. Adv. No. 11-02732 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 8-10. On October 11, 2012, the Bankruptcy Court denied the motion to dismiss on all grounds. (ECF No. 51). On April 9, 2015, the Bureau of Labor Insurance filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings. On June 9, 2015, the Trustee filed his memorandum in opposition to the motion for judgment on the pleadings. On July 22, 2015, the Bureau of Labor Insurance filed its reply memorandum in support of its motion for judgment on the pleadings. On July 29, 2015, this Court held a hearing on the Bureau of Labor Insurance's motion for judgment on the pleadings. The matter is sub judice.

176. As of September 30, 2016, the response dates to the Trustee's subsequent transfer adversary proceedings have been extended while the parties await this Court's rulings on the defendants' extraterritoriality motions to dismiss and the Omnibus Motion. See discussion supra Section IX(B)(c).

ii. Bad Faith/Feeder Fund Actions

177. The Trustee has approximately 41 bad faith and feeder fund actions still pending as of the end of the Report Period. A few will be highlighted below.

(a) The HSBC Action

178. On July 15, 2009, the Trustee commenced an adversary proceeding against a handful of HSBC entities and international feeder funds in the financial services industry that transferred funds to and from BLMIS. Picard v. HSBC Bank plc, Adv. No. 09-01364 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (the “HSBC Action”). After further investigation, the Trustee filed an amended complaint on December 5, 2010, expanding the pool of defendants to thirteen HSBC entities and forty-eight individuals and entities, and alleging that over 33% of all monies invested in Madoff’s Ponzi scheme were funneled by and through these defendants into BLMIS. (ECF No. 35).

179. The thirteen HSBC-related defendants and, separately, UniCredit S.p.A. and Pioneer Alternative Investment Management Limited, moved to withdraw the reference. On April 14, 2011, United States District Judge Jed S. Rakoff (“Judge Rakoff”) withdrew the reference to consider the Trustee’s standing to assert common law claims. Picard v. HSBC Bank plc, No. 11 Civ. 00836 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y.), ECF Nos. 20, 23.

180. On May 3, 2011, the same defendants filed motions to dismiss. Picard v. HSBC Bank plc, No. 11 Civ. 00836 (ECF Nos. 24–27). The Trustee and SIPC opposed the motions. (ECF Nos. 32–36). On July 28, 2011, the District Court dismissed the Trustee’s common law claims, holding that the Trustee lacked standing, under any theory, to assert them. Picard v. HSBC Bank plc, 454 B.R. 25, 37–38 (S.D.N.Y. 2011). The District Court returned the remainder of the HSBC Action to this Court for further proceedings. Id. at 38.

181. On December 15, 2011, the Trustee appealed the District Court's decision to the Second Circuit. See Picard v. HSBC Bank PLC, No. 11-5175 (2d Cir. 2011); Picard v. HSBC Bank PLC, No. 11-5207 (2d Cir. 2011). Oral argument was held on November 21, 2012. On June 20, 2013, the Second Circuit affirmed the decision of the District Court. (ECF No. 163).

182. On October 9, 2013, the Trustee filed a petition for a writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court. See Picard v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., pet. for cert. filed, (U.S. Oct. 9, 2013) No. 13-448. The Supreme Court denied the petition.

183. The District Court returned several of the Trustee's bankruptcy claims to this Court; however, various defendants in the HSBC Action moved to withdraw the reference from this Court and those motions have been granted, at least in part, by the District Court. These defendants participated in a variety of motions before the District Court on Common Briefing, including the Bad Faith § 546(e) Issue, the § 502(d) Issue, the Extraterritoriality Issue, and the Good Faith Standard Issue. The District Court's disposition of these Common Briefing issues is discussed supra in Section IX(A)(i)(b). The HSBC Action has been returned to the Bankruptcy Court.

184. Following the entry of the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order, the Trustee filed the Omnibus Motion. ECF No. 7827. See discussion supra Section IX(B)(c). Following a request by certain defendants, on September 17, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court held a conference to discuss further proceedings to be conducted pursuant to the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order and the Omnibus Motion. The Court directed the parties to confer and devise an efficient procedure and briefing schedule. The Omnibus Motion is being held in abeyance pending the Bankruptcy Court's ruling on the extraterritoriality issues.

185. The Trustee had been engaged in mediation with Primeo Fund (In Official Liquidation) and Herald Fund SPC (In Official Liquidation). The mediation commenced in April 2014. The mediation resulted in a settlement whereby Herald and Primeo paid the Trustee $496,844,288, and Herald received an allowed claim of $1,639,896,943.

186. The Trustee had been engaged in mediation with Senator Fund. The mediation commenced in March 2014, which resulted in a $95 million settlement between the Trustee and Senator Fund. Under the settlement, Senator Fund received an allowed claim in the amount of $238,753,482 and a catch-up distribution in the amount of $116,516,474.29. Senator Fund paid $95 million by assigning to the Trustee: (i) the funds to be advanced by SIPC in the amount of $500,000 under Senator Fund's allowed customer claim, and (ii) $94.5 million of the $116,516,474.29 catch-up distribution owed to Senator Fund under its allowed customer claim.

(b) The Luxalpha Action

187. On December 10, 2014, the Court entered the ET Scheduling Order. See discussion supra Section IX(B)(c). The ET Scheduling Order provided certain deadlines for the parties to file their respective submissions in connection with the Extraterritoriality Issue and the Omnibus Motion.

188. On December 31, 2014, the transferee defendants listed in Exhibits A and B to the ET Scheduling Order (the "Defendants Group")—including the moving Access Defendants¹² in the Luxalpha Proceeding (defined below), M&B Capital Advisors Sociedad de Valores, S.A. in the LIF Proceeding, Reliance Management (Gibraltar) Ltd. in the LIF Proceeding (defined below), and the UBS Defendants¹³ in the Luxalpha and LIF Proceedings—filed their Consolidated Motion to Dismiss in connection with their Omnibus Motion regarding the Extraterritoriality Issue. Picard v. UBS AG, Adv. Pro. No. 10-4285 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (the “Luxalpha Proceeding”); Picard v. UBS AG, Adv. Pro. No. 10-05311 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (the “LIF Proceeding”). See discussion supra Section IX(B)(c).

189. On June 26, 2015, the Trustee filed submissions opposing moving defendants’ Consolidated Motion to Dismiss regarding the Extraterritoriality Issue in the Luxalpha and LIF Proceedings. These submissions included a proffered Second Amended Complaint in the Luxalpha Proceeding, and a proffered Amended Complaint in the LIF Proceeding.

190. On September 30, 2015, the moving Access Defendants in the Luxalpha Proceeding, M&B Capital Advisors Sociedad de Valores, S.A. in the LIF Proceeding, and the UBS Defendants in the Luxalpha and LIF Proceedings filed reply papers in further support of their Consolidated Motion to Dismiss regarding the Extraterritoriality Issue.

191. In preparing the amended complaints and submissions on the Extraterritoriality Issue across numerous cases—including the Luxalpha and LIF Proceedings—the Trustee relied upon and references many documents that were designated confidential by the various parties who produced such documents (the “Producing Parties”).

192. The Trustee completed meet-and-confer discussions regarding confidentiality issues with counsel for relevant Producing Parties, including the UBS Defendants and Reliance International Research LLC. Such meet and confers resulted in the de-designation of several documents, but outstanding issues remained with several Producing Parties.

¹³ The UBS Defendants consist of UBS AG, UBS (Luxembourg) SA, UBS Fund Services Luxembourg SA, and UBS Third Party Management SA.

193. As a result, the Trustee had entered into arbitration proceedings with the UBS Defendants and Reliance International Research LLC. On June 12, 2015, an arbitrator issued a decision resolving the confidentiality status of certain documents produced by Reliance International LLC and relied upon by the Trustee in preparation of the amended complaints and submissions on the Extraterritoriality Issue. On June 23, 2015, another arbitrator issued a decision resolving the confidentiality status of certain documents prepared by the UBS Defendants and relied upon by the Trustee in preparation of the amended complaints and submissions on the Extraterritoriality Issue.

194. The Trustee continued to identify additional documents improperly designated as confidential by certain producing parties for purposes of seeking de-designation from confidential treatment of these documents, and engaged in additional meet and confers for further resolution of confidentiality issues.

195. The Trustee also continued to research and investigate the law and facts at issue in the Luxalpha and LIF proceedings, including further analyses of the transfers and assessment of related legal proceedings in both domestic and foreign jurisdictions. In addition, the Trustee prepared generally for anticipated discovery in the proceedings, which involved preparation of discovery requests and proposed case management plans, the scheduling and parameters of which were discussed with all defendants at a conference under Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“Rule 26(f)” Conference).

196. In preparation for the joint Rule 26(f) Conference, the Trustee had created a presentation to explain the procedures for the Trustee’s discovery process and protocols, with an explanation of how the Trustee produces relevant documents through an electronic data room.

The Trustee also continued to research legal issues and conduct fact investigations on matters related to both actions.

197. On April 4, 2016, the Trustee and the defendants in the LIF Proceeding and the Luxalpha Proceeding, which the parties had agreed should be coordinated for scheduling purposes, participated in a Rule 26(f) conference to discuss, among other things, a schedule for discovery. At the Rule 26(f) conference and in additional efforts to meet and confer, the parties disputed the appropriate timing of the commencement of discovery under the Federal Rules or otherwise

198. The Trustee asserted that the Federal Rules permit the immediate commencement of discovery in the proceedings and that further delay of discovery would result in the loss of evidence relevant to the events underlying the Trustee's claims in the proceedings and would unduly prejudice his ability to prosecute those claims. In connection with the Rule 26(f) conference, the Trustee served requests for the production of documents under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

199. The defendants objected to the commencement of discovery under the Federal Rules or otherwise, asserting that certain pending motions, including the Extraterritoriality Motion, the Trustee's motion for leave to amend his complaints, and the defendants' motions to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction and forum non conveniens, and anticipated motions to dismiss on other grounds (the "Anticipated Motions") will affect the identity of the parties and the scope of discovery in the proceedings, making the commencement of discovery premature at this time and proposed that, in an effort to make progress while the parties awaited the Court's decision on the Extraterritoriality Motion, (a) the parties move forward with briefing on the Anticipated Motions, or (b) in the alternative, the parties be permitted to pursue document discovery overseas by letters of request pursuant to the Hague Convention on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil or Commercial Matters (the “Hague Convention”).

200. Unable to resolve their dispute concerning the appropriate time for the commencement of discovery, counsel for the Trustee and certain parties appeared before the Honorable Stuart M. Bernstein on April 27, 2016 for a status conference. Having considered the parties’ positions at the April 27 status conference, Judge Bernstein permitted the Parties to commence document discovery through the Hague Convention.

(c) Picard v. Avellino

201. On December 10, 2010, the Trustee commenced an avoidance action against Avellino & Bienes, Frank J. Avellino, Michael S. Bienes, Nancy C. Avellino, Dianne K. Bienes, Thomas G. Avellino, and numerous other trusts and entities (collectively, the “A&B Defendants”) seeking the return of over $904 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent conveyances in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the A&B Defendants. Picard v. Frank J. Avellino, Adv. No. 10-05421 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (the “A&B Action”).

202. On June 6, 2011, certain A&B Defendants moved to dismiss the complaint in the Bankruptcy Court. A&B Action (ECF Nos. 23-27). In addition, on June 7, 2011, certain A&B Defendants moved to withdraw the reference to the Bankruptcy Court. Id. (ECF Nos. 28–30); see also Picard v. Avellino, No. 11-cv-03882 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y.) (the “A&B Withdrawal Action”).

203. The motion to withdraw the reference was fully briefed in the District Court, and oral argument was held on October 18, 2011. On February 29, 2012, the District Court issued a Memorandum Order withdrawing the reference on certain issues of law raised by the A&B Defendants and other defendants named in separate adversary proceedings commenced by the Trustee. A&B Withdrawal Action (ECF No. 20). As a result of the District Court's order, during the period of May 2012 through October 2012, the Trustee and the A&B Defendants joined in consolidated briefing and oral arguments on the withdrawn issues of law. See A&B Withdrawal Action (ECF Nos. 21–23).

204. Following the disposition of the Common Briefing issues, the Trustee and the A&B Defendants filed a coordinated briefing schedule on August 7, 2014. A&B Action (ECF No. 81). Per the schedule, on September 24, 2014, certain A&B Defendants filed a Renewed Motion to Dismiss, incorporating their previous June 6, 2011 pleading. A&B Action (ECF Nos. 82-84). On November 24, 2014, the Trustee filed an amendment to the original complaint (the “A&B Amended Complaint”) in response to the Renewed Motion to Dismiss. A&B Action (ECF No. 86). The Trustee and the A&B Defendants conferred and filed an amended coordinated briefing schedule on January 14, 2015. A&B Action (ECF No. 87). Under the schedule, certain A&B Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss the A&B Amended Complaint on January 28, 2015. A&B Action (ECF Nos. 88-89).

205. The Trustee and A&B Defendants again conferred and filed an amended coordinated briefing schedule on April 7, 2015. A&B Action (ECF No. 91). Under the schedule, the Trustee's time to respond to the Motion to Dismiss the A&B Amended Complaint was up to and including May 21, 2015. Consequently, the A&B Defendants had up to and including June 22, 2015 to file a reply, and oral argument was scheduled for and held on July 29, 2015. At oral argument, Judge Bernstein requested supplemental briefs by the Trustee and the A&B Defendants on issues raised in the Motion to Dismiss briefing, which were filed on August 12, 2015. A&B Action (ECF Nos. 102, 104).

206. On July 21, 2016, Judge Bernstein issued his memorandum decision and order (collectively, “July 21 Decision and Order”), granting in part and denying in part the Motion to Dismiss. A&B Action (ECF Nos. 116, 117). In the July 21 Decision and Order, Judge Bernstein held that, due to changes in the corporate form at BLMIS, the Trustee was legally incapable of recovering fraudulent transfers made prior to January 1, 2001. A&B Action (ECF Nos. 116, 117).

207. Consequently, on August 19, 2016, the Trustee filed a Motion to Reargue (“Motion to Reargue”) this specific aspect of the July 21 Decision and Order. A&B Action (ECF No. 125). SIPC filed a Memorandum in Support on August 19, 2016 (ECF No. 123). The A&B Defendants opposed the Trustee’s Motion to Reargue and filed their opposition papers on September 19, 2016. A&B Action (ECF No. 129). The Trustee replied to their opposition on October 3, 2016. A&B Action (ECF No. 134). Both parties await the Bankruptcy Court’s decision on the matter. Separate from the Motion to Reargue briefing, a pre-trial conference concerning general case management is currently scheduled before Judge Bernstein for November 30, 2016. A&B Action (ECF No. 130).

208. In addition to the Trustee’s analysis of the July 21 Decision and Order and work on the Motion to Reargue briefing, the Trustee continued to prepare for discovery, conduct document review and perform overall case management during the Report Period.

(d) Picard v. Cohmad Sec. Corp.

209. On June 22, 2009, the Trustee commenced an adversary proceeding against Madoff insiders Cohmad Securities Corporation (“Cohmad”), Maurice (“Sonny”) J. Cohn (“Sonny Cohn”), Marcia B. Cohn, and several other defendants (collectively, the “Cohmad Defendants”) seeking the return of over $245 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent conveyances, disallowance of any claims filed against the estate by the Cohmad Defendants, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Cohmad Defendants. Picard v. Cohmad Sec. Corp., Adv. No. 09-01305 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.).

210. The complaint seeks to avoid and recover the fictitious profits withdrawn by the Cohmad Defendants and the return of commissions and fees transferred directly from BLMIS to Sonny Cohn and Cohmad. On October 8, 2009, the Trustee filed an amended complaint. (ECF No. 82). The Cohmad Defendants filed numerous motions to dismiss, which the Trustee opposed. (ECF No. 135).

211. On August 1, 2011, this Court issued its Memorandum Decision and Order Denying Defendants' Motions to Dismiss Trustee's Complaint. (ECF No. 209). This Court found that the Trustee had adequately pleaded that the transfers received by the Cohmad Defendants in excess of their principal were not transferred for reasonably equivalent value, and Cohmad and Sonny Cohn lacked good faith in receiving commissions from Madoff. Picard v. Cohmad Sec. Corp., 454 B.R. 317, 332–34 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011).

212. Certain of the Cohmad Defendants filed a motion for leave to appeal. See Picard v. Cohmad Sec. Corp., No. 11 MC 00337 (TPG) (S.D.N.Y.), ECF Nos. 212–13. The Cohmad Defendants' appeal was denied by Judge Griesa on November 14, 2012.

213. In March and April 2012, the Cohmad Defendants moved to withdraw the reference from this Court. Picard v. Cohmad, 12-cv-02676 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 1. The Cohmad Defendants have also participated in Common Briefing as to the Bad Faith § 546(e) Issue and the Good Faith Standard Issue. See discussion supra Section (IX)(A)(i)(b). The District Court rendered a decision on the Bad Faith § 546(e) Issue, which indicated that the Trustee adequately pleaded a case against the Cohmad Defendants so that the Cohmad

Defendants are not entitled to dismiss the Trustee's complaint at the pleading stage on the basis of Bankruptcy Code Section 546(e).

214. Meanwhile, the parties have engaged in discovery. The Trustee has served discovery on all parties and third parties, and discovery is ongoing.

215. On April 25, 2016, a Second Amended Case Management Plan was so ordered by the Court extending the date that discovery closes to December 30, 2016.

216. On July 6, 2016, the Court issued an order substituting as defendants the Estates of Maurice Cohn and Milton Cohn (and their executors) in place of defendants Sonny Cohn and Milton Cohn, who died in May and August 2015, respectively.

(e) Picard v. Kingate

217. On March 17, 2014, the Trustee filed and served a fourth amended complaint under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, New York Debtor and Creditor Law and other applicable law against Kingate Global Fund, Ltd. and Kingate Euro Fund, Ltd. and numerous other defendants in the adversary proceeding captioned as Picard v. Federico Ceretti, Adv. No. 09-01161 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 100 (the "Fourth Amended Complaint").

218. On April 15, 2016, following several discovery-related conferences before this Court, the Trustee filed a motion to compel ("Motion to Compel") (ECF No. 252-267) the Kingate Funds to produce all documents they had obtained through discovery in an action the Funds were litigating in the Bermuda Supreme Court on grounds other than fraudulent conveyance ("Bermuda Action"). The Funds named as defendants in the Bermuda Action are substantially the same defendants¹⁴ named in the Trustee's Fourth Amended Complaint,¹⁵ which asserts claims under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, New York Debtor and Creditor Law, and other applicable law. According to the Kingate Funds' counsel, the Funds obtained approximately 94,000 unique documents in the Bermuda Action, which are all relevant and indeed critical to discovering the extent of the defendants' actual knowledge of Madoff's fraud in connection with BLMIS's Investment Advisory business. The Motion to Compel also sought to have the Court order the non-Fund defendants in the Trustee's Avoidance Action to participate in discovery under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Contemporaneously, the Trustee served the non-Fund defendants with requests for the production of documents that they produced in Bermuda to the Kingate Funds.

219. On May 20, 2016, defendants opposed the Motion to Compel in five separate opposition briefs on the principal ground that there is an implicit stay of discovery in effect until the Court decides the defendants' motions to dismiss on extraterritoriality issues, which is pending before this Court. Defendants further argued that if a stay is not currently in effect, the Court should sua sponte impose one, even though the defendants had not filed a cross-motion for such relief. Finally, the defendants argued that if they are not dismissed on extraterritorial grounds, they intend to seek dismissal on the ground that the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over them. The contested Motion to Compel was fully briefed on May 31, 2016, and on June 9, 2016, the Court heard oral argument from counsel for all parties to the Avoidance Action (ECF No. 277). The Court reserved decision.

220. Meanwhile, during the Report Period, the Trustee and the Kingate Funds continued to work through their other discovery-related issues in accordance with the Case

The Ashby Trust, Ashby Holding Services Limited, Ashby Investment Services Limited, El Prela Trust, El Prela Group Holding Services Limited, and El Prela Trading Investments Limited.

¹⁵ Picard v. Federico Ceretti, Adv. No. 09-01161 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), (the "Avoidance Action") [ECF No. 100].

Management Plan so ordered by the Court on October 26, 2015 (“CMP”) (ECF No. 227). As recently as September 12, 2016, counsel for the Kingate Funds and the Trustee met and conferred to discuss various issues raised by the Trustee’s responses to the Kingate Funds’ interrogatories and the Funds’ compliance with the Trustee’s discovery requests. The Trustee and the Kingate Funds are still in the document phase of discovery, which must be completed before the parties can effectively begin to take depositions. The progress on discovery during the relevant period is summarized below.

221. On May 19, 2016, the Kingate Funds produced to the Trustee over 200 boxes of hard copy documents that the Funds had obtained from Citi Hedge Fund Services Limited. These documents were collected by the Kingate Funds following commencement of the Funds’ liquidation proceedings, and were among various documents voluntarily produced to the Funds from their service providers and other agents, including KML, Citi Hedge, the Funds’ directors, HSBC Bank, and Tremont, a co-manager of Kingate Fllobal Fund for a decade (“Voluntary Production”). The Trustee physically retrieved these documents through an overnight carrier service from Bermuda, where they were maintained, and transported them to New York, where they were scanned into an electronic database by an outside vendor retained by the Trustee. The scanning resulted in approximately 250,000 documents added to the over 200,000 documents that were previously produced to the Trustee as part of the Voluntary Production. At the Kingate Funds’ request, after scanning, the Trustee returned the boxes of documents to the Kingate Funds’ agent in London.

222. On June 30, 2016 the Trustee served the Kingate Funds with the Trustee’s First Set of Interrogatories. The Kingate Funds responded to those interrogatories on August 1, 2016.

223. On July 11, 2016, the Trustee responded to the Kingate Funds' First Set of Interrogatories.

224. On April 27, 2016, the Trustee served Eric Lazear, the former head of Operational Due Diligence for FIM (USA), the U.S. arm of the FIM Entities until it was dissolved following Madoff's confession, with a subpoena duces tecum. On June 6, 2016, Mr. Lazear's counsel and the Trustee's counsel participated in a telephonic meet and confer. The parties thereafter exchanged correspondence and conferred further, with the result that on August 4, 2016, Mr. Lazear produced certain documents to the Trustee.

225. On June 1, 2016, the Trustee served Michael G. Tannenbaum, and his law firm, Tannenbaum, Helpern, Syracust & Hirschtritt (collectively, the "Tannenbaums") with a subpoena duces tecum. The Trustee received a response from the Tannenbaums' counsel on July 11, 2016, invoking privilege and raising other issues. Mr. Tannenbaum served as both a director of KML, at the same time that he served as lead counsel to the Kingate Funds and Tremont Group Holdings Inc. ("Tremont"), the co-manager with KML for Kingate Global Fund. Issues concerning what documents are not privileged due to Mr. Tannenbaum's role as director will have to be addressed by counsel for the Tannenbaums and the Trustee.

226. On June 7, 2016, the Trustee served a subpoena duces tecum on Tremont through its counsel, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom. Counsel for Tremont responded on August 8, 2016, and the parties met and conferred on August 24, 2016, and worked through acceptable search terms that would be highly likely to yield relevant documents to the Kingate proceeding in Tremont's possession, custody, or control.

227. The Trustee's counsel is preparing subpoenas for other third party, potential witnesses who are located in the U.S., and several document requests for foreign-based third parties who, based upon their role in the Kingate Funds' business with Madoff and BLMIS, are potential top priority witnesses in the Avoidance Action. These document requests will have to be prepared and served in accordance with applicable foreign law by letters rogatory or under the auspices of the Hague Convention.

228. Throughout the Report Period, the Trustee and his counsel have continued to collaborate with the Trustee's foreign counsel, as necessary, on matters involving foreign law, and the Trustee's consultants regarding the Kingate Funds' flow of cash into and withdrawals from BLMIS.

(f) Picard v. J. Ezra Merkin

229. On May 7, 2009, the Trustee commenced an adversary proceeding against sophisticated money manager and Madoff associate J. Ezra Merkin ("Merkin"); the investment management company he solely owned, Gabriel Capital Corporation ("GCC"); and his funds, Gabriel Capital, L.P. ("Gabriel Capital"), Ariel Fund Ltd. ("Ariel Fund"), and Ascot Partners, L.P. ("Ascot Partners") (collectively, the "Merkin Defendants"¹⁶). (ECF. No. 1). The Trustee alleged that Merkin knew or should have known that Madoff's investment advisory business ("IA Business") was predicated on fraud. Among other things, the Trustee sought the return of nearly $560 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law, for preferential and fraudulent transfers that were made by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Merkin Defendants. Picard v. J. Ezra Merkin, Adv. No. 09-01182 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (ECF No. 1-2). On August 6, 2009, the Trustee filed an amended complaint. (ECF No. 10).

¹⁶ Ascot Fund Ltd. was added as a defendant on August 30, 2014 and will be included in the definition of "Merkin Defendants" for all events after this date.

230. On August 30, 2013, the Trustee filed the third amended complaint (the “Third Amended Complaint”), which alleges that the Merkin Defendants had knowledge of, or were willfully blind to, the fraud at BLMIS consistent with the District Court’s recent decisions. (ECF No. 212). The Third Amended Complaint also asserted subsequent transfer claims against Ascot Fund Ltd. (“Ascot Fund”), a Cayman fund controlled by Merkin.

231. On October 11, 2013, the Receivers, Merkin and GCC filed motions to dismiss the Third Amended Complaint. (ECF Nos. 160, 166, 168). On November 15, 2013, the Trustee filed a consolidated opposition brief in response to these motions to dismiss. (ECF No. 173). On December 20, 2013, the Receivers and Merkin and GCC filed briefs in further support of their motions to dismiss. (ECF Nos. 185-188).

232. The Trustee entered into a stipulation with Ascot Fund extending its time to move, answer, or otherwise respond to the Third Amended Complaint. (ECF Nos. 159, 171). Ascot Fund ultimately filed a motion to dismiss the Third Amended Complaint on December 20, 2013. (ECF Nos. 182-183). On December 23, 2013, the Trustee and Ascot Fund entered into a stipulation which clarified the subsequent transfer counts of the Third Amended Complaint against Ascot Fund. (ECF No. 189). The Trustee filed his opposition to the Ascot Fund motion to dismiss on January 31, 2014. (ECF Nos. 198-199).

233. On April 30, 2014, this Court heard oral arguments on the motions to dismiss. (ECF No. 210). Thereafter, on August 12, 2014, this Court entered its Decision Granting in Part and Denying in Part Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss. (ECF No. 212). The Court found that the Third Amended Complaint “adequately pleads willful blindness” and that the Trustee may thus still pursue avoiding and recovering all of the intentional fraudulent transfers that he brought under section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Court also found that the Trustee did not sufficiently plead that the Merkin Defendants had “actual knowledge” of Madoff’s fraud. As a result, the Court held that section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code limits the Trustee’s avoidance counts to those asserted under section 548(a)(1)(A), and dismissed the Trustee’s counts for preferential transfers, constructive fraudulent transfers, and fraudulent transfers under New York Debtor & Creditor Law. The Court also dismissed the Third Amended Complaint’s counts of disallowance and equitable disallowance on bases unrelated to actual knowledge.

234. On January 30, 2015, fact discovery concluded, except for limited matters agreed upon by the parties. (ECF No. 264).

235. On February 5, 2015, Ariel Fund and Gabriel Capital, Ascot Partners and Ascot Fund, and Merkin and GCC filed their respective answers to the Third Amended Complaint. (ECF Nos. 259-261).

236. On March 20, 2015, the Trustee, Merkin, and GCC served expert reports pursuant to Rule 26(a)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. (ECF No. 264). On May 15, 2015, the Trustee and the Merkin Defendants served rebuttal expert reports. (ECF No. 264). Expert discovery concluded on July 17, 2015. (ECF No. 264).

237. On May 29, 2015, the Trustee filed a Motion For Entry of Order Pursuant to Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 2002 and 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Approving A Settlement Agreement Between the Trustee, Gabriel Capital, L.P. Ariel Fund LTD., and Bart M. Schwartz as the Appointed Receiver of Gabriel Capital, L.P. and Ariel Fund Ltd (the “Settlement Motion”). (ECF Nos. 266-267). On June 22, 2015, the Trustee filed a Certificate of No Objection as to the Settlement Motion, representing that there had been no objection, responsive pleading, or request for a hearing with respect to the Settlement Motion by the deadline for filing objections and requesting that the order be entered without a hearing. (ECF No. 268). On June 23, 2015, this Court entered an Order granting the Settlement Motion and approving the settlement agreement between the Trustee, Gabriel Capital, Ariel Fund, and the Ariel/Gabriel Receiver. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc.*, Adv. No. 10-05310 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.).

264. After the court filing, the parties entered into substantive settlement negotiations. On September 22, 2011, this Court approved a settlement between the Trustee and more than a dozen domestic and foreign investment funds, their affiliates, and a former chief executive associated with Tremont Group Holdings, Inc. 265. Pursuant to the settlement, Tremont delivered $1.025 billion into an escrow account, which was placed into the Customer Fund, and the Trustee allowed certain customer claims related to Tremont in the approximate amount of $2.9 billion. Two objections to the settlement agreement were filed by non-BLMIS customers, both of which were overruled by this Court. This Court entered an Order Granting Trustee's Motion for Entry of Order Approving Agreement. (ECF No. 38).

266. Pursuant to the Tremont settlement, Tremont delivered $1.025 billion into an escrow account on November 6, 2012. The settlement payment was released from the escrow account to the Trustee on February 8, 2013. Accordingly, the Trustee allowed certain customer claims related to Tremont.

368. On December 16, 2015, Judge Bernstein heard the Motions to Dismiss Based on Extraterritoriality. The motion is sub judice.

369. The Omnibus Motion is currently in abeyance under the ET Scheduling Order pending the Bankruptcy Court's ruling on the extraterritoriality issues.

370. Currently, response dates in the MLI and MLBS Actions have been extended while the parties await the Bankruptcy Court's rulings on various issues.

(r) Picard v. Richard M. Glantz

371. On December 9, 2010, the Trustee commenced an adversary proceeding against Richard Glantz and several related individuals and entities (collectively, the "Glantz Defendants"), seeking the return of more than $113 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Glantz Defendants. Picard v. Richard M. Glantz, Adv. No. 10-05394 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 9, 2010).

372. The Trustee alleges that Richard Glantz and his deceased father, Edward Glantz, created and managed entities that pooled many millions of dollars of investor funds to be funneled into BLMIS. See Picard v. Richard M. Glantz, Adv. No. 10-05394 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.). The Trustee further alleges that after Richard Glantz, Edward Glantz and entities they created and managed were permanently enjoined from future securities laws violations by the SEC, Richard Glantz and Edward Glantz arrived at a new arrangement with Madoff, which resulted in Richard Glantz and Edward Glantz receiving fraudulent side payments. (ECF No. 1). In addition, Richard Glantz continued to funnel his own money, his family's money, and other people's money into BLMIS through new entities. Id.

373. To date, the Trustee has dismissed or settled with twenty-one Glantz Defendants. Eighteen Glantz Defendants remain in this adversary proceeding. (ECF Nos. 11, 13, 14, 20, 25, 31, 43, 44, 46, 49, 50, 51).

374. On February 1, 2012, the then-remaining Glantz Defendants moved in this Court to dismiss the complaint. The Trustee and counsel for the Glantz Defendants subsequently entered into a scheduling stipulation, which was so ordered by the Court on April 2, 2012, providing new dates for the Trustee to amend the complaint and for the remaining Glantz Defendants to supplement their motion to dismiss or file a new one.

375. Prior to entry of that scheduling stipulation, on March 31, 2012, the remaining Glantz Defendants filed a motion to withdraw the reference. (ECF No. 34). On April 11, 2012, the motion to withdraw the reference was referred to Judge Rakoff. See Picard v. Glantz, No. 12-cv-02778 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y.), ECF Nos. 1–3. On May 15, May 16, June 1 and June 25, 2012, the District Court entered orders withdrawing the reference, in part, for the limited purpose of hearing and determining certain Common Briefing issues. (ECF Nos. 7, 9, 10, 11).

376. The Trustee and the remaining Glantz Defendants entered into subsequent stipulations extending the Trustee's time to amend the complaint and the remaining Glantz Defendants' time to either supplement their motion to dismiss or file a new motion to dismiss. Pursuant to the last of these stipulations, which was so ordered by this Court on November 14, 2014, the Trustee filed an amended complaint on January 9, 2015. Picard v. Glantz, Adv. No. 10-05394 (SMB) (ECF Nos. 61, 62).

377. The Trustee and the remaining Glantz Defendants entered into subsequent stipulations extending the remaining Glantz Defendants' time to either supplement their motion to dismiss or file a new motion to dismiss. Pursuant to the last of these stipulations, which was so ordered by this Court on March 31, 2015, the remaining Glantz Defendants filed a new motion to dismiss on May 1, 2015. Picard v. Glantz, Adv. No. 10-05394 (SMB) (ECF Nos. 68-71).

378. The Trustee and the remaining Glantz Defendants entered into a subsequent stipulation extending the Trustee's time to file answering papers to the motion to dismiss.

Pursuant to this stipulation, which was so ordered by this Court on June 3, 2015, the Trustee filed answering papers to the motion to dismiss on August 14, 2015, and the remaining Glantz Defendants filed reply papers in support of the motion to dismiss on October 9, 2015. Picard v. Glantz, Adv. No. 10-05394 (SMB) (ECF No. 75, 79).

379. The Trustee and the remaining Glantz Defendants entered into subsequent stipulations adjourning the hearing on the motion to dismiss. Pursuant to the last of these stipulations, which was so ordered by this Court on September 9, 2016, the hearing on the motion to dismiss is scheduled for November 30, 2016.

(s) Picard v. Fairfield Greenwich

380. On May 18, 2009, the Trustee commenced an action against Fairfield Sentry Ltd. (“Sentry”), Fairfield Sigma Ltd. (“Sigma”), Fairfield Lambda Ltd. (“Lambda”) (collectively, the “Fairfield Funds”), Greenwich Sentry, L.P. (“Greenwich Sentry”), Greenwich Sentry Partners, L.P. (“Greenwich Sentry Partners”), and together with Greenwich Sentry, the “Greenwich Funds”), and other defendants seeking the return of approximately $3.5 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent conveyances, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Fairfield Funds and the Greenwich Funds. Picard v. Fairfield Sentry Ltd. (In Liquidation), Adv. No. 09-01239 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 18, 2009).

381. On June 7, 2011, this Court conditionally approved a settlement agreement between the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators for the Fairfield Funds (the “Joint Liquidators”). (ECF No. 95). On July 13, 2011, this Court entered consent judgments between the Trustee and Lambda in the amount of $52.9 million (ECF No. 108), Sentry in the amount of $3.054 billion (ECF No. 109), and Sigma in the amount of $752.3 million (ECF No. 110).

382. As part of the Fairfield Funds settlement, Sentry agreed to permanently reduce its net equity claim from approximately $960 million to $230 million. Additionally, the Joint Liquidators agreed to make a $70 million payment to the Customer Fund. The Joint Liquidators also agreed to assign to the Trustee all of the Fairfield Funds' claims against the Fairfield Greenwich Group management companies, officers, and partners, and the Trustee retained his own claims against the management defendants. Further, the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators agreed to share future recoveries in varying amounts, depending on the nature of the claims.

383. On July 7, 2011, this Court approved a settlement between the Trustee and the Greenwich Funds, wherein this Court entered judgment against Greenwich Sentry in an amount over $206 million and against Greenwich Sentry Partners in an amount over $5.9 million. Picard v. Fairfield Sentry, Adv. No. 09-01239 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 107. In the settlement, the Greenwich Funds agreed to permanently reduce their net equity claim from approximately $143 million to approximately $37 million, for a combined reduction of over $105.9 million. Additionally, the Greenwich Funds assigned to the Trustee all of their claims against Fairfield Greenwich Group management and agreed to share with the Trustee any recoveries they receive against service providers.

384. On April 2, 2012, the remaining defendants in the Fairfield Sentry action filed motions to withdraw the reference on a number of issues that later became subject to Common Briefing and hearings before Judge Rakoff of the District Court. The Trustee briefed and presented argument at the hearings on these issues before the District Court. The District Court has issued its opinions providing guidance to this Court and remanded the cases for further findings applying the standards set forth in the District Court's opinions.

385. On June 6, 2012, the Trustee filed additional recovery actions against entities or persons related to Fairfield Greenwich Group employees or partners entitled Picard v. RD Trust, Adv. No. 12-01701 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), Picard v. Barrenche Inc., Adv. No. 12-01702 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), and Picard v. Alix Toub, Adv. No. 12-01703 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.). The parties in the Toub action have entered into a stipulated stay as permitted by this Court. None of the defendants in the three actions have responded yet to the Trustee's complaints.

386. On November 6, 2012 in the District Court, in a putative class action filed by former Fairfield Funds investors against several Fairfield Greenwich Group partners and management officials, the plaintiffs and the Fairfield Greenwich Group related defendants filed a motion seeking preliminary approval of a settlement. Anwar v. Fairfield Greenwich Ltd., No. 09 Civ. 118 (S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 997. On November 29, 2012, the Trustee filed an application seeking an injunction against the implementation of the settlement. See Picard v. Fairfield Greenwich Ltd., Adv. No. 12-02047 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 2. On December 21, 2012, the defendants filed a motion to withdraw the reference to the Bankruptcy Court. (ECF No. 11). On February 6, 2013, the District Court granted the defendants' motion to withdraw the reference to the Bankruptcy Court, Picard v. Fairfield Greenwich Ltd., 12 Civ. 9408 (VM) (S.D.N.Y.), ECF No. 30. On March 20, 2013, the District Court denied the Trustee's application seeking an injunction against the implementation of the Anwar settlement. (ECF No. 59). On April 8, 2013, the Trustee filed a notice of appeal from the District Court's denial of the Trustee's application for an injunction against the implementation of the Anwar settlement. (ECF No. 61).

387. On February 26, 2013, the Trustee filed a letter requesting a pre-motion conference on a motion to intervene in the Anwar action. (ECF No. 1054). On March 8, 2013, the District Court deemed the pre-motion conference letter to be a motion to intervene and denied the Trustee's request. (ECF No. 1071). On April 8, 2013, the Trustee filed a notice of appeal from the order denying his request to intervene in the Anwar action. (ECF. No. 1106).

388. Briefing on both appeals of the Anwar decisions was completed on June 7, 2013. Oral argument on the appeals occurred on October 10, 2013. On August 8, 2014, the Second Circuit denied the Trustee's request for an injunction. (ECF No. 181).

389. As of September 30, 2016, the response date to the Trustee's complaints has been extended while awaiting this Court's rulings on motions to dismiss based on application of the District Court's rulings on extraterritoriality.

390. On June 20, 2016, the Joint Liquidators filed a motion with this Court in the Fairfield Funds Chapter 15 proceedings to approve the assignment of the Fairfield Funds' claims against certain management individuals and entities as included in the settlement between the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators that was previously approved by this Court. In re Fairfield Sentry Limited, et al., Case No 10-13164 (SMB). (ECF No. 805). On July 5, 2016, the Trustee filed a memorandum in support of the motion. (ECF No. 810). On July 5, 2016, two Fairfield Fund investors filed an objection to the motion (ECF No. 809). On July 12, 2016, this Court held a hearing on the Joint Liquidators' motion. As of September 30, 2016, the matter remains sub judice.

(t) Picard v. Square One

391. On November 29, 2010, the Trustee commenced an action against Square One Fund Ltd., Luc D. Estenne, Square Asset Management Ltd., Partners Advisers S.A., Circle Partners, and Kathryn R. Siggins (collectively, the "Square One Defendants") seeking the return of approximately $26.2 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, and the New York Debtor and Creditor Law in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Square One Defendants. Picard v. Square One Fund, Ltd., et al., Adv. Pro. No. 10-04330 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 2010).

392. On March 30, 2012, all Square One Defendants except for Circle Partners moved to withdraw the reference. ECF No. 36. On April 2, 2012, Circle Partners moved to withdraw the reference. ECF No. 37.

393. On July 30, 2014, the motions to withdraw the reference were returned to the Bankruptcy Court. ECF No. 68; see also Adv. Pro. No. 08-01789, ECF No. 7546.

394. On August 28, 2014, the Trustee filed the Omnibus Motion. Adv. Pro. No. 10-04330, ECF No. 70. See discussion supra Section IX(B)(c). Following a request by certain defendants, on September 17, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court held a conference to discuss further proceedings to be conducted pursuant to the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order and the Omnibus Motion. The Bankruptcy Court directed the parties to confer and devise an efficient procedure and briefing schedule.

395. On October 2, 2014, the Trustee filed a letter advising that the Trustee and counsel representing the defendants in this and other actions are working together to prepare a mutually acceptable agreed order that will set forth a proposed process and briefing schedule.

396. On October 23, 2014, the Trustee filed a proposed order setting forth a proposed process and briefing schedule. Following limited objections by certain defendants, on November 19, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court held a conference to discuss the proposed process and briefing schedule.

397. On December 10, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court entered the ET Scheduling Order.

See discussion supra Section IX(B)(c).

398. On January 13, 2015 and February 24, 2015, the Court so ordered two stipulations modifying the ET Scheduling Order and certain deadlines for the parties to file their respective submissions in connection with the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order and the Omnibus Motion. Sec. Inv. Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec., LLC, Adv. Pro. No. 08-1789 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (SMB), ECF. 8990, 9350.

399. On April 1, 2015, the Court entered the Third Stipulation. Securities Inv. Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Secs. LLC, Adv. Pro. No. 08-1789 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (SMB), ECF No. 9720. See discussion supra Section IX(B)(ii)(l). The Trustee's papers in opposition to the Extraterritoriality Opinion and Order and the Consolidated Motion to Dismiss, and in further support of the Omnibus Motion, were due to be filed under the Third Stipulation with the Court on June 30, 2015.

400. On June 16, 2015, the Court entered the Stipulation And Order For Dismissal of Defendants Partners Advisers S.A., Circle Partners, Luc D. Estenne, Square Asset Management Ltd., and Kathryn R. Siggins. ECF No. 102.

401. On June 27, 2015, the Trustee filed the Memorandum of Law in Opposition to the Transferee Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Based on Extraterritoriality and in Further Support of Trustee's Motion for Leave to Amend Complaints.

402. On September 30, 2015, Defendants filed the Reply Consolidated Memorandum of Law in Support of Transferee Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Based on Extraterritoriality.

403. On December 16, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court heard oral argument on Transferee Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Based on Extraterritoriality. The motion is sub judice.

404. Pursuant to the ET Scheduling Order, the Omnibus Motion is being held in abeyance pending the Bankruptcy Court's ruling on the extraterritoriality issues.

C. Injunction Proceedings

405. The Trustee commenced numerous injunction actions seeking to enjoin third party lawsuits brought against defendants who also have been named as defendants in the Trustee's avoidance actions. Through these proceedings, the Trustee has sought to enforce the automatic stay established by § 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and related District Court stays, and/or to enjoin third party actions under § 105 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to facilitate the orderly administration of the BLMIS liquidation, and to preserve assets from which the Trustee may recover for the benefit of all BLMIS customers. During the Report Period, there have been developments in the Bankruptcy Court and the District Court with respect to these proceedings.

i. Picard v. Marshall

406. The Trustee was previously successful in enjoining Adele Fox and other plaintiffs (the "Fox Plaintiffs") from pursuing putative class actions they had brought in 2010 against the Picower estate and related entities (the "Picower Parties") in view of the Trustee's settlement with the Picower Parties and the permanent injunction ("Permanent Injunction") issued as part of the settlement, precluding claims that duplicate or derive from claims the Trustee brought or could have brought against the Picower Parties. This Court's decision barring the Fox Plaintiffs' suits was affirmed by the District Court and Second Circuit. Picard v. Fox, 429 B.R. 423 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010), aff'd, Fox v. Picard, 848 F. Supp. 2d 469 (S.D.N.Y. 2012), aff'd, In re Marshall, 740 F.3d 81 (2d Cir. 2014).

407. On February 5, 2014, shortly after the Second Circuit's affirmance, the Fox Plaintiffs brought a motion in Florida District Court to bring a second amended complaint against the Picower Parties as "control persons" of BLMIS under the federal securities laws. The Trustee successfully enjoined the Fox Plaintiffs from proceeding with their new proposed class action in violation of the automatic stay and Permanent Injunction. See Picard v. Marshall, 511 B.R. 375 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014). In the same action, the Trustee also successfully enjoined another set of plaintiffs (the “Goldman Plaintiffs”) from bringing a putative class action against the Picower Parties, as discussed further below. On May 11, 2015, the Court’s decision and order was affirmed by the District Court. Picard v. Marshall, 531 B.R. 345, 350 (S.D.N.Y. 2015) (Koeltl, J.).

408. Meanwhile, shortly after appealing this Court’s decision in Fox II to the District Court, the Fox Plaintiffs moved in this Court for a deposition of Bernard Madoff and others under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and, with respect to Bernard Madoff’s deposition, under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 27(a) and (b). On October 30, 2014, this Court denied the motion in full except it found that it lacked jurisdiction to rule on the request for Bernard Madoff’s deposition under Rule 27(a). Picard v. Marshall, No. 14-01840, 2014 WL 5486279 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 30, 2014).

409. The Fox Plaintiffs subsequently brought a Rule 27(a) petition for a deposition of Bernard Madoff in Delaware District Court, which declined to rule on the petition and transferred the case to the District Court. In re Marshall, No. 15-MC-01, 2014 WL 849302 (D. Del. Feb. 25, 2015). The Fox Plaintiffs unsuccessfully petitioned the Third Circuit to vacate the transfer order. In re Marshall, No. 15-1590 (3d Cir. 2015).

410. On May 11, 2015, the District Court denied the Rule 27 petition after hearing oral argument jointly with argument on the Fox II appeal. Marshall v. Madoff, 15-MC-56, 2015 WL 2183939 (S.D.N.Y. May 11, 2015). The District Court held that the Fox Plaintiffs appeared to be bringing the petition for the improper purpose of crafting a third amended complaint and failed to show any urgent need for the deposition. Id. at 3.

411. The Fox Plaintiffs appealed this decision to the Second Circuit, which consolidated the appeal with the appeal of the District Court's decision on the Fox II injunction. The Second Circuit dismissed the appeals on September 25, 2015 after the Fox Plaintiffs abandoned the appeals. (Order, Marshall v. Capital Growth Co. et al., 15-1869 (lead), ECF No. 70 (2d Cir. Sept. 25, 2015).)

412. On August 29, 2015, while the appeals to the Second Circuit were still pending, the Fox Plaintiffs brought a declaratory judgment action and motion seeking to file a third amended complaint against the Picower Parties ("Fox III"). The Fox Plaintiffs again alleged that the Picower Parties were control persons of BLMIS and incorporated testimony from a recently disclosed deposition of Bernard Madoff. In support of their claim, the Fox Plaintiffs also introduced on reply a declaration from Bernard Madoff in an unrelated case, which made references to Mr. Picower. The Fox Plaintiffs also stated in their papers that they intended to seek Bernard Madoff's deposition. The Trustee and Picower Parties objected to the Fox Plaintiffs' motion on the ground that the Fox III complaint was, like the predecessor complaints, duplicative and derivative of the Trustee's complaint, and further objected to the inclusion of Bernard Madoff's declaration in this action. On February 11, 2016, this Court heard oral argument and the parties are awaiting a decision.

413. Counsel for the Fox Plaintiffs then moved in this Court on March 9, 2016 in an unrelated matter for the deposition of Bernard Madoff. The Trustee and Picower Parties objected to the motion in part on the ground that counsel would improperly seek testimony concerning Mr. Picower, which was irrelevant to the matter. On March 23, 2016, this Court issued a bench ruling allowing counsel to depose Mr. Madoff, but prohibited any reference to Mr. Picower during the deposition.

ii. Picard v. A&G Goldman Partnership

414. In December 2011, A & G Goldman Partnership and Pamela Goldman (as defined above, the “Goldman Plaintiffs”) moved before this Court to lift the automatic stay so that they could file putative securities class actions against the Picower Parties. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, No. 08-01789 (SMB) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 13, 2011), ECF No. 4581. On June 20, 2012, this Court issued an order denying the Goldman Plaintiffs’ motion as duplicative and derivative of the Trustee’s settled claims and thus in violation of the Permanent Injunction as well as the automatic stay. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 477 B.R. 351, 352–53 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012).

415. The Goldman Plaintiffs appealed to the District Court. See A & G Goldman P’ship v. Picard, No. 12-cv-06109 (RJS) (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 2012). On September 30, 2013, after oral argument, the District Court issued a decision affirming the Bankruptcy Court’s decision and order. A & G Goldman P’ship v. Picard, No. 12 Civ. 6109 (RJS), 2013 WL 5511027 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 30, 2013). The Goldman Plaintiffs did not further appeal the District Court’s decision.

416. On January 6, 2014, the Goldman Plaintiffs filed a new action in the District Court for the Southern District of Florida, seeking to file a new complaint against the Picower Parties. On March 11, 2014, the Trustee successfully sought injunctive relief against both the Goldman Plaintiffs and the Fox Plaintiffs, as discussed above. The Goldman Plaintiffs appealed the decision and order, but subsequently withdrew their appeal.

417. On August 28, 2014, the Goldman Plaintiffs brought a new action against the Picower Parties in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, again seeking to allege securities law claims against the Picower Parties. On November 17, 2014, the Trustee brought an adversary proceeding in this Court to enforce the Permanent Injunction against the Goldman Plaintiffs. The Picower Parties also brought a motion to enforce the Permanent Injunction against the Goldman Plaintiffs and the two actions were consolidated.

418. On February 17, 2016, this Court granted the Trustee's and Picower Parties' motions. See Picard v. A&G Goldman P'ship, 14-02407, 2016 WL 625076 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 17, 2016). The Court held that the Goldman Plaintiffs sought to recover for conduct that was incidental to withdrawals that formed the basis of the Trustee's claims and for injuries that were identical to those suffered by customers generally. Id. at *11. The Court thus held that the Goldman Plaintiffs' claims were, like the earlier iterations of the claims, derivative of the claims the Trustee had settled, and were thus enjoined by the Permanent Injunction. Id. The Goldman Plaintiffs appealed the decision to the District Court. The appeal has been fully briefed and the parties are awaiting a hearing date. See A & G Goldman P'ship v. Capital Growth Co., 16-cv-2065-GHW (S.D.N.Y. 2016), ECF Nos. 29, 31, 32 and 43.

X. INTERNATIONAL INVESTIGATION AND LITIGATION

419. The Trustee's international investigation and recovery of BLMIS estate assets involves, among other things: (i) identifying the location and movement of estate assets abroad, (ii) becoming involved in litigation brought by third parties in foreign courts, by appearance or otherwise, to prevent the dissipation of funds properly belonging to the estate, (iii) bringing actions before United States and foreign courts and government agencies to recover customer property for the benefit of the customers and creditors of the BLMIS estate, and (iv) retaining international counsel to assist the Trustee in these efforts, when necessary. More than seventy of the actions filed in this Court involve international defendants, and the Trustee is involved in actions and investigations in several jurisdictions, including Austria, Bermuda, Israel, and the United Kingdom, among others.

420. The following summarizes key litigation involving foreign defendants in the Bankruptcy Court and in foreign courts.

A. Austria

421. The Trustee has actively investigated certain banks, institutions, and individuals located in this jurisdiction. The HSBC Action, discussed supra, names several Austrian and Italian defendants, including Sonja Kohn, Bank Austria, and UniCredit S.p.A.

B. Bermuda

422. The Trustee is actively investigating various BLMIS-related entities, their officers and directors, and transfers of funds to and through Bermuda. In addition, in December 2010, the Trustee filed protective actions in Bermuda against several HSBC-related entities in order to preserve the Trustee's ability to bring causes of action in that jurisdiction. The Trustee also continues to actively monitor third party legal proceedings taking place in Bermuda that involve several BLMIS-related entities.

C. BVI

423. The Trustee has discovered and is actively investigating the involvement of no fewer than twenty BVI-based feeder funds that funneled money into the Ponzi scheme. In particular, the Trustee has investigated and filed active complaints in the Bankruptcy Court against several BVI-based defendants, including Kingate Global Fund, Ltd., Kingate Euro Fund, Ltd., Hermes International Fund Limited, Lagoon Investment Limited, Thema Fund Ltd, Thema Wise Investments Ltd., Lagoon Investment Trust, and Equity Trading Portfolio.

D. England
